

VISIT...

LANZAROTE
Caliente.COM

BY APPOINTMENT TO
H.R.H. THE DUKE OF EDINBURGH
PUBLISHERS OF RECORDED LANGUAGE COURSES
LINGUAPHONE INSTITUTE LTD. LONDON

The Linguaphone Institute

American English Course

American English Course

The Linguaphone Institute

Linguaphone Institute Limited
207-209 Regent Street
London W1R 8AU

© 1971 Linguaphone Institute Limited London

All rights reserved. No part of this publication, or related recorded material, may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted in any form or by any means electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording or otherwise, without the prior permission of Linguaphone Institute Limited.

Printed and bound in Great Britain by Redwood Burn Limited, Trowbridge & Esher

Course validated by:

A. C. Eurich, Ph.D., President, Academy for Educational Development, formerly Acting President, Stanford University and President, State University of New York, U.S.A.

Prepared by:

T. M. Kinsella, B.S., M.A.,
University of Connecticut, U.S.A.

Recorded by:

Professor K. N. Stevens, Head of Speech Communications Research Group, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Cambridge, USA, Psycholinguistics Unit, University College, London.

George Mully

Mina Manente, B.A., M.A.

Tim Crowe, B.A., M.A.

Michael Evans, B.A.

Kathleen McDonald

Kathleen McNeil

Mimi Schweid, B.A.

Mark Sullivan

The Linguaphone Academic Advisory Committee:

The Rt. Hon. Lord Evans, D.Lit., LL.D.,
Hon. Dr. of Letters, University of Paris, formerly Provost, University College, London.

Professor A. C. Gimson, B.A.,
Professor of Phonetics,
University College, London.

Professor R. Quirk, M.A., Ph.D., D.Lit.,
Quain Professor of English,
University College, London.

Professor André Martinet,
University of Paris.

Professor Albert Sonnenfeld, Ph.D.,
Professor of French and Comparative Literatures,
Director, Special Programs, in European Civilization,
Princeton University.

Professor A. G. Lehmann, M.A., D.Phil. (Oxford), University of Warwick.

Keith Rawson-Jones, B.A.,
Divisional Director, Educational Research and Development, The Linguaphone Institute.
(Secretary)

Contents

	Introduction	2
1	The airport	6
2	The Beardsley Hotel	14
3	Our rooms	20
4	The drugstore	28
5	Food	36
6	Sightseeing	44
7	The bank and the post office	50
8	The stores	56
9	Danny's birthday	62
10	The party	68
11	Baseball	74
12	Telephone calls	82
13	A trip	88
14	The country	96
15	The hairdresser's and the cleaner's	104
16	A late night	110
17	A nice quiet afternoon	118
18	At a discotheque	124
19	A sales conference	130
20	Sightseeing in Washington D.C.	136
21	Going to Connecticut	144
22	What happened	150
23	The doctor	158
24	College	164
25	Bargains	172
26	A sad day for Sandra	180
27	Skip's job	186
28	A new job	194
29	A new house	200
30	Leaving the hotel	206
	American English sounds	213

Introduction

PART 1

Hello.
Listen, please.
I'm Mr. Laker.
I'm American.
I'm a teacher.

You're a student.
You aren't American.

I'm speaking English.
You're learning English.

This is a book.

a book

This is a tape.

a tape

This is a cassette.

a cassette

This is a record.

a record

PART 2

- Mr. Laker* Hello!
- Student* Hello, Mr. Laker.
- Mr. Laker* How are you?
- Student* I'm very well. How are you?
- Mr. Laker* I'm very well, thank you. Are you a student?
- Student* Yes, I am.
- Mr. Laker* Are you American?
- Student* No, I'm not.
- Mr. Laker* Are you learning English?
- Student* Yes, I am.
- Mr. Laker* Do you have a book?
- Student* Yes, I have a book.
- Mr. Laker* Is it the French book?
- Student* No, it isn't. It's the American English book.
- Mr. Laker* Good. Where is it?
- Student* Here it is.
- Mr. Laker* Where?
- Student* It's on the table.

INTRODUCTION

PART 3

Mr. Kent Hello.
I'm Mr. Kent.
This is my wife, Kathy.

Mrs. Kent Hello.
I'm Kathy Kent.
I'm American.
I'm forty.
I'm a housewife.

Mr. Kent This is my daughter.

Laurie Hello.
I'm Laurie.
I'm eighteen.
I'm a student.
I'm American, too.

INTRODUCTION

Mr. Kent And my son.
Danny Hi.
I'm Danny.
I'm American.
I'm fifteen.
I'm a student, too.

Mr. Kent And this is a friend, Sandra.
Sandra Hello.
I'm Sandra Warner.
I'm twenty-one.
I'm a secretary.

Mr. Kent And here's Skip.
Skip Hello.
I'm Skip Wallace.
I'm twenty-six.
I'm a friend of Mr. and Mrs. Kent, too.

LESSON ONE (1)
FIRST (1ST) LESSON

The airport

PART 1

Skip Hello!
I'm Skip Wallace.
I'm American.
I'm from New York City.
I'm a friend of the Kents.

I'm at Kennedy Airport.
Kennedy Airport's in New York.
The Kents are coming to New York.
They're coming from Geneva.

The plane's arriving.
There are the passengers.
There are Mr. and Mrs. Kent.
They're going to the customs area.

a plane

Lesson 1

There's an immigration officer.
He's looking at the passports.

a passport

There's a customs officer.
He's looking at the suitcases.
He's opening the suitcases.

a customs officer

a suitcase

I'm going to the waiting room.

Lesson 1

PART 2

Immigration

- Immigration officer* Are you American?
Mr. Kent Yes, I'm American.
Immigration officer Do you have a passport, sir?
Mr. Kent Yes, I have a passport.
Immigration officer Thank you.
Passport please, madam.
Mrs. Kent One minute, please.
It's in the bag.
Here it is.
Immigration officer Thank you.
Passport please, miss.
Laurie Yes, sir.
Here it is.
Immigration officer Do you have a passport?
Danny Yes, sir.
Here it is.
Immigration officer Passport, miss?
Sandra Yes, sir.
Immigration officer Thank you.

Lesson 1

Customs

Customs officer Do you have anything to declare?

Mr. Kent Yes, I have a bottle of perfume and a bottle of whiskey.

Customs officer One bottle of perfume?

Mr. Kent Yes, one bottle of perfume.

Customs officer And what's this?

Mr. Kent It's a bottle of whiskey.

Customs officer O.K. Thank you.

a bottle of perfume

Do you have anything to declare, madam?

Mrs. Kent No.

Customs officer Anything to declare, miss?

Sandra No, sir.

Customs officer Do you have anything to declare, miss?

Laurie Yes, sir.

Customs officer What?

Laurie I have a box of candy.

Customs officer Is it liqueur candy?

Laurie No, sir. It's chocolate candy.

Customs officer Thank you.

a bottle of whiskey

Lesson 1

Waiting room

Mr. Kent There's Skip.
Mrs. Kent Where's Skip?
Here he is.

Dave Kent

Skip Hello, Dave.
How are you?
Mr. Kent I'm fine, thank you.
And you?

Skip Very well, thank you.
How are you, Kathy?
Mr. Kent Kathy! How are you?
Mrs. Kent Fine, thank you.

Kathy Kent

Lesson 1

The children

Mr. Kent Skip, here are the children.
This is Laurie.
She's eighteen.

Laurie Hello, Skip.

Skip Happy to know you, Laurie.
How are you?

Laurie I'm tired.

Laurie Kent

Mr. Kent And this is Danny.
He's fifteen.

Skip Hello, Danny.

Danny Hi, Skip.

Danny Kent

Mr. Kent Skip, this is Sandra Warner.
She's a friend from Geneva.

Skip How do you do, Sandra?
Nice to meet you.

Sandra Happy to know you, Skip.

Skip Are you Swiss?

Sandra No, I'm American.

Skip Here's a taxi.

Taxi!

Where are Danny and Laurie?

Mr. Kent Here they are.

Skip Good.

The Beardsley Hotel, please.

Taxi driver O.K.

Sandra Warner

Lesson 1

PART 3

Hello.

Mike Hello, miss.
How are you?

Ann Very well, thank you.
And you?

Mike Fine, thank you.
Are you from New York?

Ann No, I'm from Geneva.
I'm going to New York.

Where?

Bob Hello.
I'm Bob Tiley.
Where's Jean?

Carol She's in the hotel.

Bob And where's the hotel?

Carol There.

Bob And where are Sue and Brian?

Carol They're in the hotel.

Bob There's Jean.
She's coming.

Carol Here she is.

Good-bye.

Keith Do you have the passport?

Mary Yes, here it is.

Keith And do you have the suitcase?

Mary Yes, here.

Here's the taxi.

I'm going to the airport.

Keith Good-bye.

Mary Good-bye.

And thank you.

Taxi!

Ruth Where's the taxi?

Bob I'm sorry. One minute, please.

Taxi! Taxi!

It's coming.

Ruth O.K.

Do you have the suitcases?

Bob No, they're in the waiting room.

LESSON TWO (2)
SECOND (2ND) LESSON

The Beardsley Hotel

PART 1

Laurie I'm Laurie Kent.
I'm sitting outside the hotel.
I'm tired.
Mom's not here.
She's sitting inside the hotel.
She's tired, too.

There's the porter.
He has the suitcases.
He's taking the suitcases out of the taxi.
Dad's paying the taxi driver.
The porter's taking the suitcases into the hotel.

Danny and Sandra are looking at the hotel.
They're not tired.
They're standing outside the hotel.

Dad's coming.
He's helping the porter.
We're going into the hotel.
I'd like a soda, a shower and a bed.
I'm very tired.

Lesson 2

PART 2

Reservations

Receptionist Good afternoon, sir.

Mr. Kent Good afternoon.

Is this the Beardsley Hotel?

Receptionist Yes, this is the Beardsley.

Mr. Kent Good. I'm Mr. Kent.

We have a reservation.

Receptionist One minute, please . . .

Yes, you have a reservation.

It's for five people.

It's for three weeks.

Three single rooms and one double room.

Am I right?

Mr. Kent No, miss.

You're not right.

We'd like two double rooms, and one single room.

Receptionist I'm sorry.

Two double rooms, numbers six and seven,
one single room, number nine.

Mr. Kent Where are the rooms?

Receptionist On the second floor.

Lesson 2

The hotel rooms

Receptionist Please fill out this form, Mr. Kent.
Jim, take the suitcases to the second floor.

Jim Yes, madam.

Mr. Kent Here's the form.

How much are the rooms, please?

Receptionist A single room's eleven dollars ($11).

A double room's seventeen dollars ($17).

Would you like a television in the room?

a television

Mrs. Kent Yes, please.

Mr. Kent and I would like a television.

We'd like a telephone, too.

a telephone

Receptionist Every room has a telephone.

Mrs. Kent Do the rooms have bathrooms?

a bathroom

Receptionist Yes! Every room has a bathroom.

Mr. Kent Do the bathrooms have showers?

Receptionist Yes, every bathroom has a shower.

Mr. Kent Good.

Receptionist Are you going to the rooms now?

Mr. Kent Yes, we're going now.

Send two cups of coffee to the room, please.

Laurie And three sodas.

Mr. Kent Yes, two coffees and three sodas.

Receptionist Yes, sir.

Here are the keys, Mr. Kent.

Jim, take the Kents to the rooms.

Rooms six, seven, and nine.

Jim Yes, madam.

keys

Lesson 2

Breakfast

Mrs. Kent Where's the dining room?

Jim Here it is.

Mrs. Kent When's breakfast?

Jim Eight o'clock to ten o'clock.

Mrs. Kent Good.

We'd like breakfast in the room.

Jim Yes, madam. When?

Mrs. Kent Nine o'clock, please.

Jim And the children?

Would they like breakfast in the room?

Mrs. Kent Yes, please.

Jim O.K. Here's the elevator.

nine o'clock

PART 3

Where's the hotel?

Receptionist Good afternoon, sir.
Mr. Smith Hello. Is this the New York Hotel?
Receptionist No. This is the America Hotel.
Mr. Smith Where's the New York Hotel?
Receptionist It's at the airport.
Mr. Smith Thank you.
Receptionist Good-bye.

We'd like a room.

Receptionist Good afternoon.
Mr. Blake Good afternoon.
We'd like a double room, please.
Receptionist Do you have a reservation?
Mr. Blake No.
Receptionist One minute, please . . .
Yes, we have one room.
Mr. Blake How much is the room?
Receptionist A double room's twenty dollars ($20).
Mr. Blake Thank you. We'd like the room.
Receptionist O.K. Here are the keys.

A hotel

LESSON THREE (3)
THIRD (3RD) LESSON

Our rooms

PART 1

Danny Hi!
My name's Danny.
We're going to our rooms.
My parents are going in the elevator.
The girls are going in the elevator, too.
They're tired.
I'm not going in the elevator.
I'm walking up the stairs.

This is our hotel.
It's a small hotel.
It's old.
I like new things.
There are six floors.
There are five rooms on every floor.
My room's on the second floor.
It's number nine.
I have a single room.

stairs

Lesson 3

I'd like a big room.
I'd like a radio in my room.
I like music.
I like modern music.
I like jazz, too.
I like the drums.
Mom and Dad don't like the drums.
They don't like modern music.
They like classical music.
Ah! Here's my room.

a radio drums

PART 2

Our baggage

Jim This is the second floor.
Here are your rooms.
Your rooms are six, seven, and nine.

Mr. Kent Thank you.
Where are our suitcases?

Jim Here they are.

Mr. Kent Take the suitcases into our rooms, please.

Jim Yes, sir.

Lesson 3

Laurie This is my suitcase.
And that's my suitcase, too.

Jim O.K.

Danny I'm taking my suitcase.

Mrs. Kent That's my baggage.

Mr. Kent I have my baggage.
Kathy, is this your small bag?

Mrs. Kent No, it isn't.

Danny It's my bag, Dad.

a bag

This is your room.

Jim This is your room.

Mrs. Kent It's big!

Mr. Kent And it's hot.
Please open the windows.

Lesson 3

Mrs. Kent I'm not hot. I'm cold.
Close the windows, please.

a window

Jim And this is your bathroom.
Mr. Kent Is there an outlet for my razor?

an outlet

a razor

Jim Yes, there is. It's near the sink.
Mr. Kent The light isn't working.
Please bring a new bulb.
Mrs. Kent Come in.
Hi, girls.

a sink

a bulb

Sandra Our room's wonderful!
There are three big windows.
What's that, Mrs. Kent?
Mrs. Kent That's the closet.
Sandra It's a big closet.
And you have one, two, three, four, five,
six, seven . . . eight hangers.
Where's the telephone?
Mrs. Kent It's there.
Sandra Where?
Mrs. Kent On the table.

hangers

Lesson 3

I don't like my room.

Mrs. Kent Hi, Danny.

Come in.

Danny Your room's nice.

I don't like my room.

It's small.

Your room's big.

My room's hot.

Mrs. Kent Open the windows.

Danny There's only one window.

It's open.

Mr. Kent Is there a radio in your room, Danny?

Danny No, there isn't.

Mr. Kent Would you like a radio, Danny?

Danny Yes, please.

Lesson 3

Room service

- Mrs. Kent* Come in.
Chambermaid I'm the chambermaid.
I have your drinks.
Mrs. Kent Thank you.
There's only one blanket on our bed.
We'd like two.
Chambermaid Yes, madam.
Laurie Is that my soda?
Chambermaid Yes, it is.
Laurie Good.
I'm going to bed now.
Mrs. Kent Here's your coffee, Dave.
Mr. Kent Thank you.
Danny Is that my soda?
Mrs. Kent Yes, it is.
Dave, please call room service.
Ask for a radio.
Danny Oh, good.
Now I'm happy, too.

a blanket

Lesson 3

PART 3

Music

- Mary* Hi, Bob.
Bob Hi, Mary. Do you have a radio?
Mary Yes, it's in my room.
The music's nice.
Bob Is it modern music?
Mary No, it's classical music.
Bob I don't like classical music.
I like modern music and jazz.

Room service

- Chambermaid* Hello.
Dick Is this room service?
Chambermaid Yes, it is. I'm the chambermaid.
Dick Good.
Please bring a blanket to room four.
Chambermaid Are you cold?
Dick Yes, we are.
Chambermaid O.K. Would you like hot drinks, too?
Dick Yes, please.

A hotel room

The drugstore

PART 1

Student I'm working in a drugstore.
I'm helping my father.
This is his drugstore.
He's a pharmacist.
I'm a pharmacy student.

Our drugstore's busy now.
Three people are waiting.
They're waiting for their prescriptions.
Dad's preparing their medicine.
Two teenagers are sitting at the snack bar.
The boy's eating a hamburger.
His girlfriend's drinking a soda.
She has a hamburger, too.
There's a public telephone near the door.
A man's calling his friend.

a hamburger

a public telephone

Lesson 4

It's a busy drugstore.
It's open every day.
Today's Sunday.
I'm working today.
I don't like Sundays!

PART 2

Money

- Danny* I'd like a dollar, Dad.
Mr. Kent Why?
Danny Because we want some things from the drugstore.
I want some postcards.
Sandra wants a film for her camera.
She'd like a magazine, too.

a camera

a postcard

a roll of film

Lesson 4

- Mr. Kent* Does she have money?
Danny Oh, yes.
Mr. Kent O.K. It's five o'clock (5:00) now.
Dinner's at six o'clock (6:00).
Is the drugstore near here?
Danny Yes, it's six blocks from here.
Mr. Kent O.K. Here's a dollar.
Hurry!
Danny Yes, Dad.
Thanks for the money.
Good-bye.
Mr. Kent Oh, Danny . . .
I'd like a newspaper.
Danny O.K., Dad.

a magazine

a newspaper

money

One hour

Danny Where's the drugstore?

Sandra There it is. Gee, it's big!
I like big stores.

Danny We only have one hour.

Sandra Why?

Danny Because dinner's at six o'clock (6:00).

Sandra O.K. What do you want?

Danny I want some postcards . . .
and a candy bar.

Do you want a candy bar?

Sandra No, I don't want a candy bar.
I want a film for my camera . . .
And some postcards . . .
And a magazine . . .
And a paperback . . .
And some greeting cards . . .
And some cosmetics . . .
And . . .

Danny Sandra! Dinner's at six o'clock (6:00)!

Sandra Oh, yes . . .

cosmetics

Postcards

Sandra We'd like some postcards.

Clerk Our postcards are here, miss.

Sandra How much are they?

Clerk A small postcard is five cents (5¢).

Sandra How much is a big postcard?

Clerk Ten cents (10¢).

How many would you like?

Sandra Wait a minute, please . . . What's this?

Clerk It's Columbia University.

Sandra Is this Central Park?

Clerk No, it isn't.

How many postcards would you like?

Sandra I'd like three small cards and two big cards.

How much is that?

Clerk Thirty-five cents (35¢).

Sandra I'd like a color film, too.

Clerk What size?

Sandra One-twenty, please. How much is that?

Clerk One-sixty ($1.60).

Sandra Here's a five-dollar bill.

Clerk Thank you.

Books

- Sandra* Danny, what are you doing?
Danny I'm looking at the paperbacks.
Sandra Why?
Danny Because I want a book for Laurie.
She'd like a novel.
She doesn't have her books here.
They're in Geneva.
Sandra O.K. This is a good book!
Does she have it?
Danny Yes, she has that.
She doesn't have this.
Is it good?
Sandra Yes, it is.
How much is it?
Danny Fifty cents (50¢).
I want a newspaper for Dad, too.
He's paying.
It's his money.
Sandra What time is it?
Danny It's six o'clock (6:00).
Sandra Oh, hurry!

PART 3

What are they doing?

Helen There's Edith.

Is that her friend?

Dick No, that's her father.

Helen What are they doing?

Dick Edith's buying some cosmetics.

Her father's paying for her magazine.

Dinner

Bob There's John.
Where's his wife?

Dick She's preparing their dinner.

Bob Dinner?
What time is it?

Dick Seven o'clock (7:00).

Bob Is there a snack bar near here?

Dick Yes, there is . . . two blocks from here.

Bob Good-bye.

In a drugstore

LESSON FIVE (5)
FIFTH (5TH) LESSON

Food

PART 1

Mrs. Kent I'm hungry.
I'd like dinner now.
My husband's calling a restaurant.
He's making a reservation for dinner.

I want some American food.
I like steak, chicken, salad, potatoes and all desserts.
Laurie likes American food, too.
She prefers meat to fish.

My husband prefers French food to American food.
He likes fish, but not lobster.
He doesn't eat green vegetables.
Danny likes all food.
He eats a big dinner every evening.

Lesson 5

Sandra eats a small dinner.
She's dieting.
She doesn't eat potatoes.
She doesn't eat desserts.
She drinks black coffee without sugar.
I like desserts, potatoes and sugar!
I don't like diets!

PART 2

Your table

Mr. Kent Good evening.
I'm Mr. Kent.
I have a reservation for dinner.

Hostess How many people?

Mr. Kent Five.

Hostess Come with me.

Here's your table.

Is this O.K.?

Mr. Kent Yes, this is fine.

Miss, my wife has a coat.

Would you take it please?

Hostess Yes, sir.

a coat

Lesson 5

Drinks

Waiter Good evening.
Would you like any drinks?

Mr. Kent Yes, we would.
A Manhattan for me.
What do you want, Kathy?

Mrs. Kent A whiskey sour for me.
Sandra The same for me, please.

Waiter Here are the menus.

Mr. Kent Girls, here's a menu for you.
Here's a menu for Danny.
Would you give it to him?
Kathy, here's a menu for us.

a menu

Dinner

Waiter Here are your drinks.
What would you like for dinner?

Mr. Kent We'd like two steaks, and two green salads.

Waiter Would you like any vegetables?

Mr. Kent Yes . . . some peas and some potatoes.

Waiter Would you like any appetizers?

Mr. Kent Yes . . . melon for us.

Lesson 5

- Mrs. Kent* I don't want melon.
I'd like a shrimp cocktail.
- Waiter* And you, miss?
- Sandra* I'd like melon first, and then roast beef.
Do you have any corn?
- Waiter* I'm sorry, we don't have any corn.
- Sandra* Oh! I want some spinach.
I don't want any potatoes.
- Waiter* And you, miss?
- Laurie* The same, please.
- Waiter* What would you like?
- Danny* A lobster and some French fries, a salad and some string beans.
- Waiter* Any appetizer?
- Danny* Yes, some tomato juice.
- Waiter* Would you like any wine?
- Mr. Kent* Yes, we'd like a bottle of red wine.
Do you like red wine, Sandra?
- Sandra* Yes.
- Mr. Kent* Danny, what would you like?
- Danny* Red wine.
- Mr. Kent* A glass of milk for him, please.
- Waiter* Does the girl want milk, too?
- Laurie* No, I'd like red wine.
- Mr. Kent* Red wine for her.

melon

corn string beans

a glass

Tomorrow

Danny I'd like some bread.
Would you give it to me, Dad?
Who has the butter?

Sandra I have it.

Danny Would you give it to me, Sandra?
Would you like any bread?

Sandra No, I don't eat bread.
I'm dieting.

Danny The brown bread's good.

Sandra I like white bread but not brown bread.

Danny I prefer brown bread.
Who has the pickles?

Sandra I have them.

Danny Would you give them to me?

Laurie Dad, are we going sightseeing after dinner?

Mr. Kent No, we're not going sightseeing.

We're going to our hotel.

We're tired.

We want some sleep.

We're going sightseeing tomorrow.

Ah! The waiter's coming now.

He has our appetizers.

bread

Lesson 5

- Mrs. Kent* Where's my napkin?
Mr. Kent Here it is.
Mrs. Kent What about the girls?
Mr. Kent They have their napkins.

a napkin

PART 3

Vegetables

- Jean* Do you have any peas?
Clerk No, we don't have any peas.
We have some string beans.
Jean No, thanks.
I prefer peas to string beans.
Clerk We have some good tomatoes.
Jean No, my husband doesn't eat them.
He eats only two vegetables — peas and corn.
Clerk We have some vegetables, but not peas and corn.

Dessert

Dick Who has the dessert menu?

Helen I have it.

Dick Would you give it to me?

Helen Yes, here it is.

I don't want any dessert.

I'm not hungry.

I want some black coffee.

Dick I want some dessert but not coffee.

I'd like some apple pie.

In a restaurant

LESSON SIX (6)
SIXTH (6TH) LESSON

Sightseeing

PART 1

Skip I'm Skip Wallace.
I'm in the Beardsley Hotel.
Today I'm showing the Kents around New York City.

This is my favorite city.
I work here, and I live here, too.
I know New York City very well, but Mr. Kent doesn't know it.
He knows the west coast, but he doesn't know the east coast.
The Kents are from California.
My parents live there, too, and they know the Kents very well.

I have plans for today.
This morning we're going to the United Nations.

Lesson 6

Before lunch we're also going to the Empire State Building.

Then we're having lunch in Greenwich Village.

This afternoon we're walking around Greenwich Village.

This evening we're having dinner at an Italian restaurant.

After dinner we're going to a concert at Lincoln Center. What a busy day!

PART 2

This morning

Skip Are you still tired, Laurie?

Laurie No, I'm not. Where are we going this morning?
Where are you taking us?

Skip First we're going to the United Nations.

Laurie Where's that?

Skip It's on Forty-fifth (45th) Street.

Laurie Sandra's very excited.

Skip Why?

Laurie Because she works at the United Nations.

Lesson 6

- Skip* In Geneva?
Laurie Yes, she's a secretary.
Skip Does she know any people here?
Laurie Yes, she knows some secretaries.
She's having lunch with them on Thursday.
They're showing her around the United Nations.
Skip Great!
Now, where's your mother?
Laurie She's still in her room.
She's very slow.
Skip Yes, well, she's a woman.
Women are slow.
Ah! Here she is.

The United Nations

This afternoon

- Danny* When are you taking us on the Staten Island Ferry?
Skip After lunch.
I'm taking you to Rockefeller Center before lunch.
Danny Are we going to the Empire State Building, too?
Skip Yes, we're going there before lunch.
Danny Are we walking?
Skip No, we're taking a bus.
Now, where's your mother?
Danny She's in the souvenir store.
She's late again.
There she is.
Mrs. Kent I'm late again.
I'm sorry.
Skip That's O.K. . . . but hurry!
We're taking that bus.

The Empire State Building

Lesson 6

Buildings

Danny Is this Fifth (5th) Avenue?

Skip No, this is Forty-second (42nd) Street.

Danny What a high building!

Is that the Empire State Building?

Skip No, it isn't. We can't see it from here.

It's between Thirty-third (33rd) and Thirty-fourth (34th) Street.

Danny What's that?

Skip That's my favorite building.

It's the New York Public Library.

Danny When do you go there?

Skip During my lunch hour.

Danny Is your office near here?

Skip Yes, four blocks from here . . . on Madison Avenue.

It's between Forty-fifth (45th) and Forty-sixth (46th) Street.

Danny Oh, you're lucky.

Skip Yes, I am.

Look! We can see the Empire State Building now.

Danny Oh, yes! I can see the top. How high is it?

Skip I don't know.

There's a guard at the top. You can ask him.

Danny Can we go to the top?

Skip Yes, we can.

Lesson 6

- Danny* Oh, good.
Are you coming, Mom? Hurry!
- Mr. Kent* Danny's excited.
He likes high buildings.
- Skip* Are you coming with us, Dave?
- Mr. Kent* Yes.

A wonderful view

- Skip* We're lucky.
- Mrs. Kent* Why?
- Skip* Because there aren't any clouds.
- Mrs. Kent* Is that the Hudson River?
- Skip* No, that's the East River.
There's the Hudson . . . on that side.
- Mrs. Kent* Oh! Manhattan's between the two rivers.
- Skip* Yes, that's right.
Look! There's the Staten Island Ferry.
- Mrs. Kent* Where?
- Skip* Near the Statue of Liberty.
- Mrs. Kent* Are we going on the ferry?
- Skip* Yes, you're going on it this afternoon, Kathy.
- Mrs. Kent* Oh! Good! . . .
What a wonderful view!
- Skip* Hurry! We're leaving now.

Lesson 6

PART 3

We're waiting.

- George* Can we go now?
Harry No. We're waiting for Beth again.
George Does she know the time?
Harry I don't know. She knows our plans.
George I can see her in the restaurant.
She's still eating. She doesn't know the time.
Harry We're late. I can see the bus.
Now she's paying the waiter. Here she comes.
George We can go now.

I can take a bus.

- Dick* When are you leaving New York?
Ruth This evening.
Dick Before dinner?
Ruth No. After dinner.
The plane is leaving at nine (9:00).
Dick I can't take you to the airport.
Ruth Why?
Dick Because I'm going to a concert this evening.
Ruth Oh well . . . I can take a bus.

LESSON SEVEN (7)
SEVENTH (7TH) LESSON

The bank and the post office

PART 1

Mr. Kent This afternoon my wife and I are going to the bank, and then we're going to the post office.

The bank closes early.

It closes at three o'clock (3:00) on weekdays, and it's not open on Saturdays or Sundays.

The post office is open until six o'clock (6:00).

On Saturdays it's open from eight o'clock (8:00) to twelve o'clock (12:00). It's not open on Sundays.

I'm going to the bank to change some traveler's checks.

Kathy still has some Swiss money.

She's going to the bank to change it for American money.

She isn't changing her traveler's checks.

Then she's going to the post office to mail something to Geneva.

I'm going to the post office to buy some stamps.

I'm not mailing anything.

The bank and post office aren't far from here.

Kathy knows the way and she has a map.

We can't lose our way.

PART 2

Street numbers

Mr. Kent Where's the map, Kathy?
Do you have it?

Mrs. Kent No, I don't have it. You have it.

Mr. Kent No, I don't. Who has it?

Mrs. Kent Oh, I know. Sandra still has it.
She's using it to go to the United Nations.
That's O.K. . . . We can't lose our way.

Mr. Kent Yes, you're right.
The names of the streets are numbers.

Mrs. Kent That's not difficult.
We're on Thirty-ninth (39th) Street.
We want to go to Forty-second (42nd) Street, or do we want to go to Forty-third (43rd) Street?

Mr. Kent Forty-second (42nd) Street.

Mrs. Kent That's easy.
We go three blocks north.

Where's north?

Mr. Kent That's easy, too.
Look at the numbers on the buildings.

The low numbers are south and the high numbers are north.

Mrs. Kent Yes, north is this way.

Mr. Kent That's right.

Lesson 7

Money

Mrs. Kent Here's the bank. When does it close?

Mr. Kent It closes at three o'clock (3:00).

Some banks don't close until five o'clock (5:00), but not this bank.

Now look for the foreign exchange windows.

Mrs. Kent These are the savings windows.

Are those the foreign exchange windows?

Mr. Kent No, they're not.

Those are savings windows, too.

These are the foreign exchange windows.

Change your money first.

Mrs. Kent I can't change my Swiss money.

Mr. Kent Yes, you can.

Mrs. Kent No, I can't.

Mr. Kent Why not?

Mrs. Kent Because I don't have it.

It's in my blue pocketbook.

There's nothing in this pocketbook.

Mr. Kent Oh! Kathy! We can't go back to the hotel again.
It's late . . . but don't worry.

Mrs. Kent Can I change it tomorrow?

Mr. Kent Yes, you can.

a pocketbook

Lesson 7

Mail

Mr. Kent Hello, I want to buy some stamps.
My wife wants to send something to Switzerland.
She wants to mail something to California, too.
Can she mail them here?

Post office man Yes, she can. How many stamps would you like?

Mr. Kent I'd like ten six-cent (6¢) stamps and five airmail stamps, please.

Post office man Here they are.

Is this the package for Switzerland?

Mr. Kent Yes, it is.

Post office man Air mail or ordinary mail?

Mr. Kent Air mail, please.

Post office man Are these the letters for Switzerland?

Mrs. Kent No, they aren't going to Geneva.

Those are going to California and these are going to Geneva.

Post office man Air mail or ordinary mail?

Mrs. Kent Air mail, please.

Mr. Kent How much is that?

Post office man That's three dollars and twenty-five cents ($3.25).

Do you sell package labels?

Post office man No, I'm sorry, we don't sell them.

a package

Lesson 7

Telegrams

- Mrs. Kent* Now we can go back to the hotel.
- Mr. Kent* No, wait a minute.
I'm going to the general delivery window to register.
- Mrs. Kent* General delivery window?
Why?
- Mr. Kent* Because I'm expecting some important letters.
- Mrs. Kent* When are they coming?
- Mr. Kent* This week or next week.
- Mrs. Kent* Can the post office send the letters to our hotel?
- Mr. Kent* No, they can't.
I can only get them here.
- Mrs. Kent* Oh . . . well . . . you register.
I'm going to the telegraph window to send a telegram.
- Mr. Kent* You can't send a telegram from the post office.
- Mrs. Kent* Why not?
- Mr. Kent* Because the telegraph office isn't here.
- Mrs. Kent* Where is it?
- Mr. Kent* I don't know.
Ask that man. He can help you.
Ask for the Western Union office.
- Mrs. Kent* Oh . . . I can send it tomorrow.
- Mr. Kent* O.K.

Lesson 7

PART 3

Postcards

- Dick* Hello, Bob.
Where are you going?
- Bob* I'm going to the drugstore to buy some postcards.
- Dick* You can't.
- Bob* Why not?
- Dick* Because it closes at six o'clock (6:00).
It's six o'clock (6:00) now.
Ask for some at your hotel.
That's still open.
- Bob* I can't.
- Dick* Why not?
- Bob* Because my hotel doesn't have them.

A store for men

- Bob* What a busy store!
- Mike* Yes, would you like anything?
- Bob* Yes, I want to buy something for my girlfriend.
- Mike* Oh. They have nothing for girls here.
- Bob* Why not?
- Mike* Because it's a store for men.

LESSON EIGHT (8)
EIGHTH (8TH) LESSON

The stores

PART 1

Mr. Kent Today the women are going to Fifth (5th) Avenue to shop.
Both of the girls and my wife are going.
They don't want Danny and me with them.
Thank goodness!

Women are terrible shoppers.
They spend a lot of time and they only buy a few things.
I only spend a little time and I buy a lot of things.

Sometimes my wife shops all day and she doesn't buy anything.
She tries on clothes all day and then she doesn't bring anything home.
This seems crazy!

She's too fussy.
She only likes a few colors.
She only likes blue, green and yellow.

Lesson 8

She looks nice in all of those colors.
Her favorite color is either blue or green.
I don't know which one.
She doesn't like red and pink.
They're too bright.
And brown and grey aren't bright enough.
Oh! She's fussy.

PART 2

A big department store

Sandra This isn't Fifth (5th) Avenue.

Laurie Yes, it is.

Mrs. Kent No, it isn't. Sandra's right.

This is Broadway.

First we're going to a big department store to shop.

Laurie What are we looking for?

Mrs. Kent Oh, I don't know . . . clothes or food or jewelry.

We can buy anything there.

Laurie I don't have much money.

Is it an expensive store?

Mrs. Kent No.

Laurie Do they sell books?

Lesson 8

- Mrs. Kent* Yes. Which book are you looking for?
Laurie I want a book about jazz to give to Danny.
His birthday's soon.
Mrs. Kent But he has a lot of books.
Laurie I know, but he doesn't have many books about jazz.

Lipstick

- Salesgirl* Can I help you?
Sandra Yes, I want a lipstick.
Salesgirl Red?
Sandra No, I'd prefer either orange or pink.
Salesgirl We have a lot of pink lipsticks, but we don't have many orange ones.
Pink seems very popular this year.
Do you like this one?
Sandra No, that seems too bright.
Which color are you wearing?
Salesgirl I'm wearing "Pretty Pink".
It seems perfect for you.
Sandra Yes, I'd like that one. How much is it?
Salesgirl Ninety-eight cents (98¢).
Sandra And how much is that perfume?
Salesgirl Three dollars ($3). How many would you like?
Sandra I'd like one of them.

a lipstick

Dresses

- Laurie* I look terrible in this blue dress.
It's too long and it's not bright enough.
- Mrs. Kent* No, you're wrong.
You don't look terrible.
It's a lovely dress, and you look very pretty in it.
- Laurie* No, I don't.
I'm trying on the orange dress.
- Mrs. Kent* Oh, Laurie, orange is too bright.
- Laurie* No, it isn't.
I look nice in orange.
This dress looks nice on me.
- Mrs. Kent* I don't like it.
- Laurie* Why?
- Mrs. Kent* Because it's too short and . . .
- Laurie* Mom, I have a lot of blue dresses but only a few orange ones.
- Mrs. Kent* Ah, here's Sandra.
Ask her.
- Sandra* Laurie, you look very pretty.
Is she buying it, Mrs. Kent?
- Mrs. Kent* Well . . . both of you like it . . .
Yes, she's buying it . . .

a dress

Lesson 8

After lunch

Laurie Where are we going after lunch?

Sandra We can go to a lot of stores.

Mrs. Kent Sandra, do you like big stores?

Sandra I like some of them, but I prefer small stores.
Most of the department stores are too big for me.

Mrs. Kent Laurie likes all of them.

All of her new things are from a big store.

Laurie Yes, I have two books, a dress, a skirt, a blouse and some scarves.

Sandra How many scarves do you have?

Laurie Four . . . One of them's for me and three of them are for friends.

Sandra Which scarf's for you?

Laurie Either the brown one or the green one.

Sandra What do you have, Mrs. Kent?

Mrs. Kent Nothing.

Sandra Nothing?

Buy something!

Mrs. Kent Yes . . . after lunch . . . but we don't have much time now.

a scarf

a skirt

Lesson 8

PART 3

In the store

- Jean* Do they sell food here?
Louise I don't know. Ask that girl.
Jean Do you sell food here?
Louise No, not that girl.
Jean Which one?
Louise The one in the food department.

Red dresses

- Mrs. Becker* You're right, Dick, I look nice in green.
Mr. Becker Yes, I know.
Mrs. Becker But this dress isn't long enough.
Mr. Becker You're right, it's too short.
I prefer the bright orange dress.
It's not too short.
Mrs. Becker I don't like it. It's too bright.
Mr. Becker It's pretty.
Mrs. Becker I look terrible in very bright colors.
Mr. Becker No, you look perfect. Buy the red one.

Danny's birthday

PART 1

Mrs. Ketcham

I'm Liz Ketcham.

I'm Mrs. Kent's sister.

This evening my sister's family is coming to celebrate my nephew's birthday.

I've planned a small party, but Danny doesn't know about it yet.

It's a surprise party.

I'm very excited.

I haven't seen Kathy's family for five years.

They've been in Geneva for three years, and we've been in New York City for three years.

My husband and I are from California, but we haven't lived there for eight years.

Many of our friends still live in California. Next year we're going there to visit my husband's family.

We're staying at his brother's house.

All of my relatives are going, too.

Lesson 9

PART 2

The Ketchams

Mr. Ketcham Someone's at the door, Liz.

Mrs. Ketcham Is everything ready?

Mr. Ketcham Yes, dear, everything's fine.
Answer the door.

Mrs. Ketcham Hello! I'm so happy to see you!
Come in!

Mrs. Kent Liz, you look so good.

Mrs. Ketcham Thank you, Kathy, . . . you look good, too.
And the children . . . both of them are so big.

Mrs. Kent Well . . . you haven't seen them for five years.

Mr. Kent Kathy, you've forgotten to introduce Sandra.

Mrs. Kent Oh, I'm very sorry.

Liz, we've brought a friend with us.

This is Miss Warner.

Please call me Sandra.

She hasn't visited New York City before.

Hello, Sandra.

So glad to meet you.

Lesson 9

Mrs. Ketcham Please sit down everyone.
I've made some hors d'oeuvres.
They're in the kitchen.
Can Laurie help me?

Mrs. Kent Of course she can.

Three days

Mrs. Ketcham How long have you been here?

Mrs. Kent We've been here since Sunday.
Today's Wednesday . . . we've been here for three days.

Mrs. Ketcham What have you seen since Sunday?

Mrs. Kent We've been very busy, but we haven't seen many things.
New York City's so big!
We've seen some of the sights,
and we've shopped on Fifth (5th) Avenue.

Mrs. Ketcham Have the girls bought anything?

Mrs. Kent Yes, they've bought some lovely things.

Mrs. Ketcham And you, have you bought anything?

Lesson 9

- Mrs. Kent* I've seen a few nice things but I haven't bought anything yet.
- Mrs. Ketcham* I'm going to Fifth (5th) Avenue on Friday. Come with me.
- We can find something. I know the good stores.

Liz's sons

- Mrs. Kent* How have your sons been?
- Mrs. Ketcham* Fine. Steve's still living with us.
- Mrs. Kent* Has he finished college yet?
- Mrs. Ketcham* Yes, he has. He's worked here in New York City for eighteen months.
- Mrs. Kent* What does he do?
- Mrs. Ketcham* He works at an export company. He's worked there since January.
- Mrs. Kent* And what does Chris do?
- Mrs. Ketcham* He works at Dad's company in California. We still haven't met Chris's wife. They're coming to visit us this year.
- Mrs. Kent* When?
- Mrs. Ketcham* Either this month or next month.
- Mrs. Kent* How long's Chris's vacation?
- Mrs. Ketcham* No one's told him yet. He wants four weeks. Peggy's vacation is for four weeks.
- Mrs. Kent* Is Peggy Chris's wife?
- Mrs. Ketcham* Yes, she is.
- Her name is Margaret, but we call her Peggy.

Lesson 9

The surprise

Mrs. Ketcham Ah! Here's Steve.

Steve Hello, Aunt Kathy, Uncle Dave.

Are these my cousins?

Mrs. Kent Yes, this is my daughter, Laurie, and this is Danny.

Mr. Kent Kathy, you've forgotten to introduce Sandra again.

Mrs. Kent Oh, sorry.

This is Sandra Warner.

Sandra, this is Liz's son, Steve.

Steve Hello, Sandra.

Are my aunt and uncle your parents' friends?

Sandra No, my parents don't know the Kents.

My parents' home is in Hawaii.

Mrs. Ketcham Is everyone ready?

We're having the party now.

Danny Party?

Mrs. Ketcham Yes, it's your birthday party, Danny.

All Surprise!

Lesson 9

PART 3

Aunt Jane

- Jane* I'm so tired!
Ruth Yes, you look tired!
Jane I've shopped all day.
Ruth Why?
Jane Because today's my nephew's birthday.
Ruth Have you bought anything?
Jane No, nothing.
Ruth Why not?
Jane Because he has everything!

The party

- Tom* Is everything ready?
Sue No, I haven't bought the fruit yet.
Tom Are there any hors d'oeuvres?
Sue Yes . . . well . . . no. I've bought the food, but I haven't made the hors d'oeuvres yet.
Tom Have you made the pies?
Sue No, I haven't made them yet.
Tom Is the wine here?
Sue No, it hasn't arrived and the store's closed now. But I've bought a dress.

LESSON TEN (10)
TENTH (10TH) LESSON

The party

PART 1

Danny What a wonderful surprise!
My aunt and uncle are so kind.
They remember my birthday every year.

I've received one present already.
Mom's parents have sent me five dollars ($5.00).
My grandparents send me money every year.
Dad's parents haven't sent me anything yet.
My grandmother's written me a letter.
She's making me a sweater, but she hasn't finished it yet.
My grandfather's sending me something, too.
It hasn't come yet.

I've seen my parents' present already.
It's been in their closet since yesterday.
It's either a football or a pair of ski boots.
Of course, I haven't opened the package yet.

a sweater

a football

Lesson 10

PART 2

The presents

Mrs. Ketcham Why don't you sit on the couch to open your presents?

No one can see you in that corner.

Which one are you opening first?

Danny Steve's present.

Steve Oh, no. Don't open my present.

Open Sandra's present first.

Danny O.K. . . . Oh, what a wonderful record!

Mrs. Ketcham What kind of record is it?

Danny Jazz . . . Why don't we listen to it?

Mrs. Ketcham Good idea!

Laurie, put your brother's record on the stereo.

Which one do you want to open next, Danny?

Danny Give me Steve's present, please.

Another record . . . Thanks, Steve.

Mrs. Ketcham Why don't you open your parents' present next?
Which one is it?

Danny Oh, I've seen it already.

Mrs. Ketcham What is it?

Danny It's either a football or a pair of ski boots.

Oh, I'm wrong . . .

It's a radio . . . wow!

a stereo

Lesson 10

At the table

Mrs. Ketcham Who's coming into the dining room for cake?

Mr. Kent Everyone's coming.

Mrs. Ketcham Don't sit there, Danny.

This is your seat.

Danny Oh, I'm sorry.

Who's sitting beside me?

Mrs. Ketcham That's your uncle's seat.

Steve Which chair is for me, Mom?

Mrs. Ketcham This one, and that's Sandra's seat beside you.

And Laurie's seat is here beside me.

Sit down everyone.

Mr. Kent Danny, would you turn off your radio, please?

You can listen to it later.

Danny Oh, I'm sorry.

Mrs. Ketcham Can someone help me in the kitchen, please?

Laurie Of course. Aunt Liz.

Lesson 10

Ice cream and cake

- Mrs. Ketcham* Now, has everyone had ice cream and cake?
Laurie No, I haven't.
Mrs. Ketcham I'm sorry, Laurie.
What kind of ice cream would you like?
Laurie Strawberry, please.
Mrs. Ketcham Who's having more coffee?
Sandra I'd like another cup of coffee.
Mrs. Ketcham With cream, Sandra?
Sandra No, nothing in my coffee.
Mrs. Ketcham Would anyone like more cake?
Laurie I haven't eaten my first piece yet.
Mrs. Ketcham Danny, have you had another piece of cake?
Danny No, I haven't, but I'd like another piece.
Mrs. Ketcham And a little more ice cream?
Danny No, thank you, but I'd like a little more soda.
Steve Gee, Mom, this is good.
You haven't made a cake since Dad's birthday.
Mrs. Ketcham Would you like more cake, Steve?
Steve Of course!

a cake

Lesson 10

College

- Mrs. Kent* Thank you for a wonderful evening, Liz.
- Mrs. Ketcham* You're welcome. We've enjoyed it, too.
Does Danny have all his presents?
- Danny* Yes, and thanks again for the dictionary.
- Mrs. Kent* He can use it at college.
- Mr. Ketcham* Why don't you plan a visit to my college?
Danny and Laurie can see the campus.
Have they thought about college yet?
- Mrs. Kent* Yes, Laurie's going to Smith in September.
Danny isn't finishing high school until next year.
- Mr. Ketcham* Has he looked at any colleges yet?
- Mrs. Kent* No, he hasn't.
- Danny* I'm not interested in college.
- Mr. Ketcham* Not interested in college? You're crazy!
Of course you're going to college.
I've made a list of colleges for you.
- Mrs. Kent* Thanks, Bill.
- Mr. Ketcham* Why don't you come to my college next Tuesday?
- Mrs. Kent* What a good idea!

Lesson 10

PART 3

Sit down.

- Dick* Is this anyone's seat?
Helen Yes, it's my sister's seat.
Dick Can I sit in that one?
Helen No, don't sit there. That's someone's seat, too.
Dick Well, which chair can I have?
Helen Why don't you sit in that one?
Dick Yes. No one's sitting there.
Helen Good, now everyone has a seat.

Mike's birthday

- Tom* Have you thought about Mike's birthday yet?
Sue Yes, I've made a list of presents already.
Tom Good. Give me the list and I can buy the things.
Sue Why don't you look at the list first?
Tom O.K. Wow! What a list! He doesn't like these things.
Sue I like them.
Tom Yes, but you're a girl.

Baseball

PART 1

Steve This afternoon I'm taking my cousin and my uncle to a baseball game.
Danny's never seen a professional game.
Uncle Dave hasn't seen one for years.

Today's game's between the Yankees and the Red Sox.

Both of these teams are very good this year.

I haven't seen the Red Sox this season.

They're often one of the best teams in the league.

I often go to baseball games.

I usually go to Yankee Stadium to see the Yankees.

Their games are always good.

Sometimes I go to Shea Stadium to see the Mets.

Some of their games are good, others are bad.

Basketball's another exciting sport, but I don't usually go to those games.
The best sport's baseball.

basketball

PART 2

The teams

Steve Look, Danny! The teams are coming onto the field.
Have you ever seen the Yankees?

Danny No, I haven't.

Steve What about Laurie?
Has she ever seen a baseball game?

Danny No, she hasn't seen one. She doesn't like baseball.
Have your parents ever seen a professional game?

Steve No, they haven't seen any professional games.

Danny Which ones are the Yankees?

Steve They're wearing blue and white uniforms.

Danny Who's pitching first?

Steve The Red Sox.

Danny Are both teams good this year?

Steve Yes . . . pretty good.

Danny Which one's better?

Steve The Red Sox are usually better than the Yankees, but this year the Yankees are the best team in the league.

Danny Do they ever lose?

Steve Oh, yes. Sometimes they lose, but they usually win.
They don't often have a bad day.

Danny Which team do you like?

Steve I've always liked the Yankees.

Danny Me too. Dad's never liked the Yankees.

Lesson 11

A home run

Mr. Kent The Yankees haven't scored yet . . . what's wrong?

Steve I'm not worried.

This is only the fourth inning.

The next three batters are good.

Mr. Kent No, they aren't.

This one's pretty bad.

He's made two strikes already.

Steve Oh! Look! He's on second base.

And here's Blaire. He's the Yankees' best batter.

Mr. Kent No, that's not Blaire. That's Blake.

He's the Yankees' worst batter.

Steve Collins is worse than Blake.

Blake usually makes a hit.

Look at that! . . . a home run!

Mr. Kent What's the score now?

Steve It's tied — two to two.

What a game!

a batter

Lesson 11

Hot dogs

- Danny* Dad, may I buy a hot dog?
Mr. Kent Yes, you may.
Buy Steve one and buy me one, too.
Danny May I have some money?
Mr. Kent Here are two bucks.
Danny Thanks. Do you want mustard on your hot dog?
Mr. Kent Yes, please. I do.
Steve No, thank you, I don't.
Mr. Kent One with mustard, the other without mustard.
Danny May I buy a soda, too?
Mr. Kent Yes . . . What kind would you like, Steve?
Steve No soda, thanks . . . I'm buying us beers, Uncle Dave.
Danny Steve, which man sells soda?
Steve I don't know.
Some sell soda, others sell beer.
Ask that man.
Danny May I buy an ice cream, too?
Mr. Kent Sure. Buy me one, too.
Steve Me too . . . please.
Danny May I have another buck, Dad?
Mr. Kent Sure, here.

a hot dog

Lesson 11

The end of the game

Danny Who's winning now?

Steve The Yankees . . . four to two.
They've scored another run.

Danny Is this the last inning?

Steve Yes, it is.

Danny Good. The Red Sox can't score three runs in one inning.

Mr. Kent Yes, they can.

Look, there are men on both first base and second base.

Danny Yes, and there's Hodge. He always strikes out.

Mr. Kent Yes, you're right.

Strike one . . .

Strike two . . .

Oh! A hit!

Danny No, it isn't.

Mr. Kent Yes, it is. Yea!

Steve Catch it! Yea! He's caught it!

That's the end of the game.

The Yankees have won again.

Mr. Kent Yes, and the Red Sox have lost.

Oh, well . . . sometimes they win, other times they lose. That's life!

Lesson 11

PART 3

The best restaurant

- Bill* I've never been to this restaurant before.
Ben It's the best one in this city.
They usually make a very good lunch.
Bill Have you ever been here before?
Ben Yes, I always come here with my friends.
Bill Do you always pay?
Ben Sometimes I pay, other times my friends pay.
Bill Are you paying today?
Ben No, today my friend's paying!

A terrible game

- Bob* What a terrible game!
Harry Yes, Slade usually scores, but he hasn't scored this evening.
Bob He's the team's worst batter.
He hasn't hit the ball this inning.
Harry He hasn't been lucky in this game.
Bob Look! Becker's caught the ball!
Harry That's the end of the game.
Bob What a terrible game!
It's the worst game this year.

Telephone calls

PART 1

a play

a floor show

Mr. Kent My wife and I are going to see a play on Monday. I've called some friends in Connecticut and they're going to come, too. We haven't seen them for years. After the play we're going to go to a nightclub.

This evening I'm going to make a reservation for Monday.

Kathy's sister's given me the names of some good nightclubs.

There are a lot of nightclubs in New York City. Some are expensive, others are inexpensive. Some have good entertainment, others don't. I want one with a good floor show and dancing.

I like small nightclubs but my wife likes big ones. The smallest nightclub in Geneva is my favorite one.

Kathy's favorite nightclub is bigger but it's not the biggest one in Geneva.

It's smaller than a lot of them.

Lesson 12

PART 2

The wrong operator

- Operator* Operator . . . your call, please.
Mr. Kent Can you give me the number of Beck's on Fortieth (40th) Street?
Operator I'm sorry, but you've called the wrong operator. Please dial 411 for "Information".

a telephone operator

- Mr. Kent* Thank you.
Operator Information.
Mr. Kent Can you give me the number of Beck's on Fortieth (40th) Street?
Operator One minute, please . . . 847-0270.
Mr. Kent And can you give me the number of Hal's Place?
Operator What's the address of Hal's Place?
Mr. Kent I'm sorry but I don't know.
Operator Oh, that's too bad . . . there are four of them. Three of them are nightclubs, the other's a bar.
Mr. Kent Which one's near Broadway?
Operator Two of them . . . one's on Forty-fifth (45th) Street, the other's on Fifty-fourth (54th) Street.
Mr. Kent Can you give me both numbers?
Operator Yes. The one on Forty-fifth (45th) Street's 866-7087, the other's 227-9513.
By the way, I've been to both clubs.
The one on Fifty-fourth (54th) Street is nice, but the other's nicer.
It's the nicest one in New York City.
Mr. Kent Thank you for your help.

Lesson 12

A reservation

Receptionist Beck's nightclub . . . Can I help you?

Mr. Kent Yes . . . Can I reserve a table for dinner for four at ten fifteen (10:15) on Monday, July sixth (6th)?

Receptionist Just a minute please.

I'm sorry, but we aren't going to have any tables until ten forty-five (10:45).

Is that O.K.?

Mr. Kent No. I'm sorry but that's too late. Thank you.

Receptionist Good-bye.

Receptionist Hal's Place . . . Can I help you?

Mr. Kent Yes. Can I reserve a table for dinner for four at ten fifteen (10:15) on Monday, July sixth (6th)?

Receptionist What's your name, please?

Mr. Kent Kent . . . David Kent.

Receptionist Thank you, Mr. Kent.

Information

Operator Information.

Mr. Kent Can you give me the number for Michael Wiese at 6 Park Drive, Fairfield, Connecticut?

Operator I'm sorry, but this is New York City Information. Please dial 1-203-1212.

Lesson 12

- Mr. Kent* Thank you.
- Operator* Connecticut information . . . What city, please?
- Mr. Kent* Fairfield.
- Operator* Yes . . . what number would you like?
- Mr. Kent* Can you give me the number for Wiese on 6 Park Drive?
- Operator* How do you spell Wiese, please?
- Mr. Kent* W I E S E
- Operator* Thank you, one minute please . . . the number's 966-8015.
- Operator* Are you going to dial the number?
- Mr. Kent* No, I'm not going to dial it.

A long-distance call

- Operator* Operator . . . your call please.
- Mr. Kent* I want to make a long-distance call to Connecticut. I want to speak with Mrs. Wiese.
- Operator* What's the number, please?
- Mr. Kent* 966-8015.
- Operator* Thank you.
- Mr. Kent* What's your number, please?
- Mrs. Wiese* 838-5704.
- Mrs. Wiese* Hello.

Lesson 12

- Mr. Kent* Hello, Karen? This is Dave Kent.
- Mrs. Wiese* Oh, hello, Dave. How are you?
- Mr. Kent* Fine, thanks.
I've made a reservation for Monday night.
- Mrs. Wiese* Oh? Which nightclub?
- Mr. Kent* Hal's Place.
- Mrs. Wiese* Good . . . When are you going to visit us?
- Mr. Kent* May we come on Saturday, the Fourth (4th) of July?
I'm going to rent a car and we're going to drive there.
- Mrs. Wiese* What time are you going to come?
- Mr. Kent* Is ten thirty (10:30) in the morning O.K.?
- Mrs. Wiese* Fine.
- Mr. Kent* May we bring a friend?
- Mrs. Wiese* Sure.

Lesson 12

PART 3

Bobby likes baseball.

Bob Hi, Harry.

Harry Hi, Bob.

Bob Do you want to go to a baseball game tomorrow?

Harry I don't know. I've never seen a baseball game.

Bob Well, I'm going to give you my number.
It's 323-8575.

Harry Fine. May I call you at five thirty (5:30)?

Bob Yes. I'm going to be at my hotel until a quarter after seven (7:15).

Late again

Joe What time is it?

Jim It's a quarter after eight (8:15).

Joe Too bad. I'm going to be late again.

Jim What are you going to do?

Joe Nothing. Every day I hurry, and every day I'm late.

LESSON THIRTEEN (13)
THIRTEENTH (13TH) LESSON

A trip

PART 1

Laurie We're all waiting to leave for Connecticut.
Dad's gone to pick up the car he's rented.
It's on the other side of town, but the traffic's not too bad today.
New York City's more crowded during the week than on weekends.
Dad doesn't like traffic because he doesn't like to drive slowly.
He usually drives fast but carefully.

Mom doesn't drive as well as Dad.
She usually drives slowly but carelessly.
She stops too suddenly and turns too quickly.
She has to learn to drive smoothly.
I'm more comfortable with Dad because he drives smoothly.

Lesson 13

I haven't learned to drive yet, but Dad's going to teach me.

I need a lot of help.

I want to get a license soon and Danny wants to get a license, too.

He isn't as old as I am.

He has to wait until he's seventeen.

PART 2

Traffic

Mrs. Kent What time is it, dear?

Mr. Kent A quarter of nine (8:45).

Mrs. Kent And how far do we have to drive?

Mr. Kent About seventy miles.

Mrs. Kent The traffic's not very heavy.

We're not going to be late.

Mr. Kent Yes, but we have to hurry.

The traffic's going to be heavier soon.

Mrs. Kent Why?

Lesson 13

a crowded highway

Mr. Kent Because everyone's going to drive to the country today.

Remember, today's the Fourth (4th) of July.
The highways are going to be very crowded.

Mrs. Kent Are they going to be as crowded as the city streets?

Mr. Kent Oh, yes. They're going to be more crowded than the city streets.

The heaviest traffic's going to be on the Merrit Parkway.

Mrs. Kent Well, you have to be careful and you have to drive slowly.

Mr. Kent Yes, dear . . . don't worry.
I always drive carefully.

a parkway

A policeman

- Mrs. Kent* Dave, you've passed a policeman!
Please drive slowly!
- Mr. Kent* It's O.K.
- Mrs. Kent* No, it isn't. You have to stop.
The policeman's signaling you.
- Mr. Kent* Oh, darn! We're going to be late.
- Policeman* May I see your driver's license, please?
And would you mind showing me your registration?
- Mr. Kent* Yes, sir. Here they are.
- Policeman* Your speed's been sixty-five for five miles.
The speed limit's fifty-five miles per hour.
I have to give you a ticket.
- Mrs. Kent* But officer, we haven't driven as fast as some of the other cars.
- Policeman* You're right, but I've stopped you.
- Mrs. Kent* You haven't stopped the faster cars. Why?
- Policeman* Because I can't.
- Mrs. Kent* Why not?
- Policeman* Because my car doesn't go as fast as their cars.
- Mr. Kent* May we go now?
- Policeman* Yes, but drive slowly . . . and remember, you have to pay the ticket before August fourth (4th).

a policeman

Lesson 13

I need a candy bar.

Mr. Kent Have we lost a lot of time?

Mrs. Kent No, dear. It's only twenty of ten (9:40).
But we've lost some money.

Mr. Kent Yes, I'm sorry.
How far have we gone?

Mrs. Kent About thirty-five miles.

Mr. Kent That's not too bad.

Sandra Mr. Kent, I have to use the restroom.
Would you mind stopping at the next gas station you see?

Mr. Kent That's a good idea, Sandra.
The car needs gas and I need a drink of water.

Danny And I need some food.
May I buy a candy bar, Dad?

Mr. Kent No, Danny. You don't need a candy bar.

At a gas station

Attendant Can I help you?

Mr. Kent Yes, I need gas and the girls have to use the ladies' room.

Where is it?

Lesson 13

- Attendant* It's there.
They have to pick up the key in the office.
Which grade of gasoline, sir?
- Mr. Kent* I'm not sure.
I don't need the most expensive grade you sell.
- Attendant* This one's not as expensive as the highest grade we sell.
It's medium.
You can't use the most inexpensive gas in this car.
Do you need oil?
- Mr. Kent* I'm not sure. Would you mind checking the oil, water and tires?
- Attendant* That's three dollars, forty cents ($3.40) for nine gallons.
- Mr. Kent* Have you checked the oil, water and tires?
- Attendant* Yes, the oil's fine, the radiator's full and I've put a little air into the rear tires.
- Mr. Kent* Great! Thank you.
- Mrs. Kent* Please drive slowly, Dave.
We have a lot of time.
- Mr. Kent* What time is it now?
- Mrs. Kent* Five after ten (10:05).
We're going to arrive between twenty-five after ten (10:25) and twenty-five of eleven (10:35).
- Mr. Kent* Perfect!

Lesson 13

PART 3

The slowest car in Connecticut

Joe I have to be in New York City at twenty of eleven (10:40).

How far do I have to drive?

Attendant About seventy miles.

Joe It's twenty after nine (9:20) already.

Attendant Well, you have to go now.

Joe I'm not going to go fast.

Attendant Why not?

Joe Because my car's the slowest car in Connecticut.

Attendant You're right.

I haven't seen a car as old as this for years.

Lesson 13

Morning or evening.

Joe She has to hurry. She's going to be late.

John But it's only five after nine (9:05).

Joe She has to be there at eleven o'clock (11:00).

John Don't worry. She's only going to drive about two hundred miles.

Joe She can't drive two hundred miles in two hours.

John Two hours! She doesn't have to be there until eleven o'clock (11:00) this evening.

Joe Not eleven o'clock (11:00) this morning?

John No.

LESSON FOURTEEN (14)
FOURTEENTH (14TH) LESSON

The country

PART 1

an apartment in the city

Mr. Wiese We haven't seen the Kents for a long time.
We were all in Geneva at the same time and they were our neighbors.
Our children were friends of their children.

I was the manager of a bank in Geneva.
Now I'm working for a different bank in
New York City.
Our home was in Manhattan until last year.
We're living in Connecticut now.

We had a lovely apartment in the city but we weren't happy there.
We don't like city life very much.
We're happier in the country.

The children have more friends now than they had before, because the people in the country are more friendly than the people in the city.
Our life in the city wasn't as pleasant as it is now.

Lesson 14

PART 2

Fourth of July traffic

Mr. Kent This might be the house they live in.

Danny No, Dad, this isn't their house.
That's the house they live in.

Mr. Kent Where?

Danny On the opposite side of the street.
Look! There's Mr. Wiese.

Mr. Kent Hi, Mike! How are you?

Mr. Wiese Fine . . . and you?

Mr. Kent Not too bad.

Danny Where's Fred?

Mr. Wiese He was in the garage a minute ago, but he might be in the house now. Would you like to go in?

Mrs. Kent Where's Karen?

Mr. Wiese She was here a minute ago. Here she is.

Mr. Kent Hello, Karen.

Mrs. Wiese Hi. Did you have a good trip?

Mr. Kent Yes, we had a very good one.

Mrs. Wiese What was the traffic like?

Mr. Kent It wasn't too bad.

Mrs. Wiese You were lucky. Last year it was very bad.

Lesson 14

Something to eat

- Mrs. Wiese* Would you like to sit on the porch?
There are more chairs on the porch than there are in the living room.
- Mr. Wiese* And it's not as hot outside as it is inside.
Fred, you don't have to stay here.
Would you like to go for a walk with Danny?
- Fred* Good idea! Would you like to go for a walk, Danny?
- Danny* Yes, I would.
- Mrs. Wiese* Is anyone thirsty?
- Mrs. Kent* Yes, I am. I'd love a cold drink.
- Mr. Kent* I'm not. I had an iced tea at the gas station.
- Mrs. Wiese* Did you have anything to eat?
- Mr. Kent* No, we didn't have any food. We weren't hungry.
- Mrs. Wiese* Are you hungry now?
- Mr. Kent* I'm not, but Danny might be.
He was hungry an hour ago, but he didn't have anything to eat.
He only had a soda.
- Mrs. Wiese* There are some cookies in the kitchen.
Would you like a few, Danny?

Lesson 14

- Danny* Yes, please.
- Fred* Can I have a few, too, Mom?
- Mrs. Wiese* You had some this morning.
Are you still hungry?
- Fred* Yes, I'm always hungry.
- Mrs. Wiese* O.K., you can have two or three.
- Fred* Do we have to eat them here, Mom?
- Mrs. Wiese* No, you don't have to eat them here.
You can take them with you.
- Fred* Thanks, Mom.

A walk on the beach

- Mr. Wiese* Would you like to go for a swim?
- Mrs. Wiese* I can't go. I have to prepare lunch.
- Mrs. Kent* Why don't you all go for a swim?
I'm going to help Karen.
- Mr. Wiese* You don't have to help Karen.
She doesn't have much to do.
- Mrs. Kent* I'd like to stay here.
- Mr. Wiese* Well . . . why don't we go, Dave?
What time do we have to come back?
- Mrs. Wiese* About one (1:00).

Lesson 14

- Mr. Kent* This is a beautiful place you have, Mike.
Mr. Wiese Thank you, we like it very much.
It was terribly hot here last week.
We had a picnic on the beach every evening.
Yesterday the children had a beach party after dinner.
They were in the water all the time.
- Mr. Kent* Can they swim well?
Mr. Wiese Yes, they can . . . very well.
Would Danny and Laurie like to spend next weekend here?
- Mr. Kent* I'm sure they'd love to. That's perfect.
Kathy and I have to go to Washington D.C. next weekend.
- Mr. Wiese* Wonderful!

The seasons

JANUARY
SUN	MON	TUE	WED	THU	FRI	SAT
				1	2	3
4	5	6	7	8	9	10
11	12	13	14	15	16	17
18	19	20	21	22	23	24
25	26	27	28	29	30	31

- Mrs. Kent* How long have you lived here, Karen?
Mrs. Wiese Since last June . . . about a year.
Mrs. Kent Was it cold last winter?
Mrs. Wiese Yes, it was cold, but not as cold as Geneva.
December and February were much colder than January.

Lesson 14

Mrs. Kent Did you have much snow?

Mrs. Wiese Yes! We had more snow than you had in Geneva.

Mrs. Kent What about the other seasons?

Mrs. Wiese I think fall was the most beautiful season.

The days were clear and dry.

It was sunny and warm all the time.

September and October were the nicest months.

November was terrible. We had a lot of rain.

Mrs. Kent What was last spring like?

Mrs. Wiese It wasn't very pleasant.

May was nicer than March and April.

March was cold and April was rainy.

Mrs. Kent What's summer like?

Mrs. Wiese It's marvelous.

Mrs. Kent Is it always as hot as this?

Mrs. Wiese Yes, yesterday was hotter than today.

Mrs. Kent Is August as hot as July?

Mrs. Wiese No . . . it's usually cooler and drier.

Mrs. Kent It sounds great. Dave might take a job in New York City and we might buy a house here.

Mrs. Wiese What a wonderful idea!

Mrs. Kent Well . . . we might but we might not.

Lesson 14

PART 3

The beach

- Bob* Would you like to go to the beach?
Judy No, thanks. It's too cold to go for a swim.
Bob But the water's warm in November.
Judy The water might be warm, but the beach is cold.
Bob It was colder two months ago.
Judy I wasn't here two months ago, thank goodness!

Work

- Jean* Joe and Mary don't have to work much.
Jim Why not?
Jean They have a lot of money.
Joe's a writer and Mary's a teacher.
Jim Can Joe write well?
Jean Joe can, but Mary can't.
Jim Does Mary teach well?
Jean Oh, yes, very well.
She's a very good teacher.

In the country

The hairdresser's and the cleaner's

PART 1

a hairdresser's

Sandra This morning Mrs. Kent's going to the hairdresser's to have her hair done.

Laurie and I are going to the launderette to wash some clothes.

Then we're going to the cleaner's to have some other clothes cleaned.

I want to have my pink suit cleaned.

I might need it tomorrow.

Mrs. Kent has to have her yellow dress cleaned because it's very dirty.

She wants to wear it tonight.

We can have clothes cleaned very quickly here.

The hairdresser's that Mrs. Kent uses is on Eighty-third (83rd) Street.

The launderette and cleaner's that we're going to use are near there.

Lesson 15

a cleaner's

We should be there by five after ten (10:05) because Mrs. Kent's appointment is at ten fifteen (10:15).

Last week she was late because her taxi was in a traffic jam. Today we might take the subway.

PART 2

The subway

- Sandra* We can walk to the hairdresser's, can't we?
Mrs. Kent Yes, but we might be late, Sandra.
I think we should take a taxi.
Sandra We don't have to take a taxi.
Mrs. Kent Yes, we do.
I have to be there by ten fifteen (10:15).

Lesson 15

- Sandra* We can take the subway, can't we?
Mrs. Kent Yes, that's a good idea, but there isn't a station near the hairdresser's.
Sandra Yes, there is. It's next to the shoe store that I like.
Mrs. Kent Good. We might get there more quickly by subway than by taxi.
Sandra And the subway isn't as expensive as a taxi.
Mrs. Kent How much is the fare?
Sandra It's the same as the bus fare, isn't it?
Mrs. Kent No, I think it's different from the bus fare.
Sandra You might be right . . .
Mrs. Kent Or I might be wrong . . .

coins

Hurry

- Mrs. Kent* You were right, Sandra.
The subway was faster than a taxi.
Sandra I think the subway's the fastest way to travel in New York City.
Mrs. Kent Yes, it is.
Now I'm on time. I don't have to hurry.
Sandra I should have my hair done for tomorrow, shouldn't I? It looks awful.
Mrs. Kent That's a good idea.
Sandra Mrs. Kent, would you make an appointment for me?
Mrs. Kent For when?
Sandra For tomorrow morning.
Mrs. Kent For the same time as my appointment today?
Sandra No, a different time.
I'd like an early appointment, at about nine fifteen (9:15).
Mrs. Kent Laurie, are you going to have your hair done, too?
Laurie Well, I should have it cut, shouldn't I?

Lesson 15

- Mrs. Kent* Yes, you should. It's too long.
I'm going to make an appointment for you, too.
- Laurie* O.K.
Mom, it's ten after ten (10:10). You should hurry.
- Mrs. Kent* Yes. Do you have enough change for the launderette?
Remember . . . you have to have the right coins for those machines.
- Laurie* I don't have much change, but I can get some more.
- Mrs. Kent* Good. And remember . . . you must not put the dark clothes in the same machine as the light ones.
- Laurie* Don't worry!

The cleaner's and the launderette

- Laurie* We should go to the cleaner's first.
- Sandra* No, we should go to the launderette first, shouldn't we?
It's nearer and we don't want to waste time.
- Laurie* Yes, you're right, but it's usually very crowded, isn't it?
- Sandra* Yes, but there might be two empty machines.
Here's the launderette.
- Laurie* The machines that are next to the dryer are empty, aren't they?

Lesson 15

Sandra No, those are full. These two are empty.
Now remember, you must not use too much soap and you must not use bleach with the dark clothes.

Laurie Yes, I know. You sound the same as Mom.

Sandra Sorry.
I think I should go to the cleaner's.
We have to save time.

Laurie You're right. We shouldn't waste time.

Sandra Is it possible to have this dress cleaned by this afternoon?

Clerk Yes, it is.

Sandra Is it possible to have my suit done, too?
There are a few spots on the jacket.

Clerk No, we have to keep that tonight.

Mom's hair

Laurie I love your hair, Mom.

It's the same as Sandra's style, isn't it?

Mrs. Kent No, it's different from Sandra's hair style.
Her hair's shorter.

And it's different from the style I usually wear.

It was nicer last week, wasn't it?

Laurie No, I think it's nicer this week.

Mrs. Kent I'm glad you like it.

Now, where are the clothes?

Laurie They're still at the launderette.

Mrs. Kent Oh! Did you have enough money?

Laurie Yes. We had enough money, but they didn't have a change machine.

Mrs. Kent Oh, dear.

Laurie It's O.K. The clothes might be ready now.

PART 3

The dirty car

- Pat* John's going to have his car washed.
Judy He had it washed yesterday, didn't he?
Pat Yes. He thinks it's dirty again.
He's very fussy.
Judy John's car's the same as Bill's, isn't it?
Pat No, Bill's car's different from John's.
Bill's car's dirty.

Jane's late

- Jane* I should be at Tom's by eleven thirty (11:30).
Jill You must not be late.
Tom's always on time.
Jane I look awful. I haven't done my hair.
Jill You had your hair done yesterday.
You look fine.
Jane Is it possible to go by bus?
Jill No, it's eleven twenty-five (11:25).
Go by taxi.

A late night

PART 1

Laurie Last night my parents went to a musical.
They went with the Wieses, who are the people we visited last Saturday.
Before the show Mom and Dad walked down
Broadway.
Mom wanted to see the theaters and clubs.
Dad hated the crowds.
They walked very slowly and they arrived about five minutes late.

Mom loved the show.
Mrs. Wiese liked the dances, but she didn't like the songs.
Dad didn't like the show at all because he can't stand musicals, and Mr. Wiese didn't like it either.

Lesson 16

After the show they went to a nightclub.
They enjoyed that very much.
They didn't arrive back in the hotel until very late.
This morning they stayed in bed until eleven o'clock (11:00).

PART 2

Hal's Place

Receptionist I'm sorry but I don't have a reservation for you.
When did you call?

Mr. Kent I called last Thursday.

Receptionist And what did you ask for?

Mr. Kent I asked for a table for four at ten fifteen (10:15).

Receptionist Maybe you called the other Hal's Place, Mr. Fent.

Mr. Kent Oh, no! My name isn't Fent; it's Kent.

Receptionist Oh, I'm sorry. I didn't look for Kent.

I looked for Fent. Yes, here's your reservation.

Did you ask for a table in the little back room?

Mr. Kent No, I didn't. I'd like one in the main room, please.

Receptionist Well, we have two tables.

One's near the bar and the other's near the door.

The one near the bar is a small round table.

The other one's a large square table.

Which one would you like?

Lesson 16

- Mr. Kent* Oh, I don't know.
You don't have a table near the dance floor,
do you?
- Receptionist* No, I'm sorry but we don't.
- Mr. Kent* The small round one near the bar is fine.

Dinner

- Mr. Kent* I'm sorry we arrived late.
Kathy wanted to walk down Broadway.
- Mr. Wiese* Why did she want to walk down Broadway?
- Mr. Kent* To look at the theaters and clubs.
- Mr. Wiese* You didn't miss much.
- Mr. Kent* Good. Now, what would everyone like to eat?
- Mr. Wiese* I'm not very hungry.
- Mrs. Kent* Neither am I, but I am thirsty.
- Mrs. Wiese* So am I.
Why don't we have a drink?
- Mrs. Kent* O.K. But I'm very thirsty.
I'd like a glass of water first.
- Mr. Wiese* And what about dinner?
- Mrs. Wiese* I think I'd like the chicken that we had last week.
- Mrs. Kent* How did they prepare it?
- Mrs. Wiese* I'm not sure, but it tasted very good.
- Mr. Wiese* I liked it very much.
I'm going to have it again.
- Mrs. Wiese* So am I.
- Mrs. Kent* I'd like a steak.
What about you, Dave?
- Mr. Kent* So would I.
A big juicy steak and a fresh green salad.
I love steak.

The musical

a musical

- Mrs. Kent* Did you enjoy the show, Karen?
- Mrs. Wiese* Yes, I enjoyed it very much.
I adore musicals.
- Mrs. Kent* So do I.
- Mrs. Wiese* You didn't like the first act, did you?
- Mrs. Kent* No, I didn't.
The women danced badly and the men who danced seemed nervous.
- Mrs. Wiese* Yes, you're right.
The woman who played the nurse wasn't Jill Sheen, was she?
- Mrs. Kent* No, she wasn't.
Her name was Sheri Chilver.
- Mrs. Wiese* She talked too fast and she didn't dance very well either.
- Mr. Kent* Did you really enjoy the show?
- Mrs. Kent* Yes, of course we did.
- Mr. Kent* What did you like?
- Mrs. Kent* Oh, everything.

a nurse

Lesson 16

Costumes and scenery costumes

- Mr. Kent* You don't really like musicals, do you?
- Mr. Wiese* No, not really.
I prefer dramas.
Last week we went to see A View from the Bridge.
- Mr. Kent* The production wasn't very good, was it?
- Mr. Wiese* No, but the play was interesting.
- Mr. Kent* You were lucky.
Tonight's play was dull.
- Mr. Wiese* The actors and actresses weren't very good.
- Mr. Kent* No, but the costumes and scenery were great.
- Mr. Wiese* I didn't like the costumes the men had but the dresses the women had were beautiful.

scenery

Lesson 16

- Mr. Kent* Who was the actor who played the doctor?
Mr. Wiese That was Randy McCue.
He was in a movie I saw last week.
He's the actor who was the doctor in another musical last year.
I didn't like that show either.
Mrs. Kent Why did you buy tickets for this show?
Mr. Kent To please you.
Mrs. Kent Oh. . . . thanks . . . why don't we dance?

PART 3

Fast talkers

- Harry* Did you talk to John last night?
Pat No, I didn't.
Harry You didn't miss much.
Pat He's the man who talks so fast.
His wife doesn't talk slowly either.
Harry I can't stand people who talk too fast.
Pat Maybe they think quickly.

Lesson 16

The other one

- Judy* I adore this short black dress.
You don't have a bigger size, do you?
- Salesgirl* I'm sorry but we don't, madam.
This little yellow dress is your size.
- Judy* No, I prefer the other one.
- Salesgirl* Which one, madam?
- Judy* The one that this lady's wearing.
I can't have that one, can I?
- Salesgirl* I'm sorry but that was the only one, madam.

A nice quiet afternoon

PART 1

Central Park

Sandra Steve Ketcham called me last night.
He called me on Friday, too.
I haven't seen him since I went to Danny's party last Wednesday.
He invited me to go to the beach on Sunday, but I couldn't go because I had to visit some of my parents' friends.
I didn't go with the Kents.
They went to Bear Mountain.

Steve asked me to meet him tomorrow in front of the Central Park Zoo.
He doesn't have to work tomorrow.
We're going to spend a nice quiet afternoon together.
I need a nice quiet afternoon!
I hope to go to Central Park.
It's a marvelous place for sitting and talking quietly.

Lesson 17

I really love New York City.
I hope to work here someday.
Maybe I can work for the United Nations here.
They always need bilingual secretaries.

PART 2

Sandra and Steve

Steve Hi, Sandra.

I apologize for being late.

I had to go to my office.

Sandra Oh? Why did you have to go there?

Steve To get the wallet I left there yesterday.

How long have you been here?

Sandra Only about five minutes.

Laurie and Danny walked here with me.

Steve When did they leave?

Sandra A few minutes ago.

Steve Where did they go?

Sandra To the zoo.

Steve And what about Mr. and Mrs. Kent — where did they go?

Sandra Mr. Kent had to go to Staten Island.

Steve Why did he have to go there?

Sandra To meet a business friend for lunch.

Steve Did Mrs. Kent go with him?

Lesson 17

- Sandra* No, he couldn't persuade her to go with him.
She hoped to shop again today.
- Steve* It's a good day for shopping, isn't it?
- Sandra* Yes, and it's a good day for sitting in the park.
- Steve* I understand.
Why don't we go into the park?
- Sandra* What a marvelous idea!

Talking about Steve

- Sandra* This is a beautiful park, isn't it?
- Steve* Yes, it is.
I often come here.
- Sandra* What do you do, Steve?
- Steve* I'm the assistant manager of the sales department.
- Sandra* Did you go to college?
- Steve* Oh, yes. I went to college for four years and then
I had to take a couple of other courses at night school.
- Sandra* Where did you go to college?
- Steve* Boston University.
Dad wanted me to become a lawyer or an engineer but I didn't like that idea.
- Sandra* What did you want to become?
- Steve* I hoped to become a doctor.
- Sandra* What happened?
- Steve* I didn't think that I could get enough money to study for eight years.
Then I decided to become a businessman . . . and here I am!
- Sandra* Have you worked for the same company since you finished college?
- Steve* Yes, I have. I'd like to go to look at the lake.
- Sandra* So would I.

Talking about Sandra

Steve Now, why don't we talk about you?
Did you go to college?

Sandra No, I didn't.

Steve Where did you learn to speak German and French?

Sandra In Europe.

I've lived in Europe since I was thirteen.

Dad was in the army.

Steve Where did you live?

Sandra Near Frankfurt, Germany.

Steve Did you study German and French?

Sandra Well, I studied French in school.

Steve And how did you learn German?

Sandra I took German lessons and most of my friends were German. I usually spoke German with them.

Steve And did you always want to become a secretary?

Sandra No, for a long time I hoped to become a teacher or a nurse.

Steve What happened?

Sandra Mom and Dad went back to Hawaii and I wanted to stay in Europe.

I've worked at the United Nations since they left.

Next year I hope to come to New York City.

Steve Why?

Sandra To work and study.

Eating lunch

Steve It's a quarter of three (2:45).
I haven't had anything to eat since breakfast.
I'm hungry.

Sandra So am I.

Steve You'd like some lunch, wouldn't you?

Sandra I'd like a sandwich.

Steve Why don't we eat here?

Steve Waiter, what kind of sandwiches do you have?

Waiter Ham, cheese, egg salad and tuna fish.

Sandra I'd like a cheese sandwich and a small green salad.

Steve So would I. You have soup, don't you?

Waiter Yes, French onion soup today.

Steve All right, I hope it's hot.

Waiter Here are your sandwiches and here's your soup.

Steve Thank you . . . ah . . . we don't have any silverware.
We need knives and forks for eating salads and I need a spoon for my soup.

Also we need another small plate, don't we?

Waiter Certainly, sir.

Steve You'd like salt and pepper, wouldn't you, Sandra?

Waiter Oh, I'm sorry, I forgot them.

I'm new here today and I'm very nervous.

Lesson 17

PART 3

The chambermaid

Harry What do you do, Mary?

Mary I'm a chambermaid.

Harry Did you want to become a chambermaid?

Mary No, I hoped to become an English teacher.

Harry Do you understand English?

Mary Yes, and I speak it, too.

Harry Did you learn English in the United States?

Mary No, I couldn't go to the United States.

I had to study with records.

Harry That's interesting.

So did I.

LESSON EIGHTEEN (18)
EIGHTEENTH (18TH) LESSON

At a discotheque

PART 1

Steve Tonight we're going to a discotheque.
I'm taking Sandra and Laurie'll be with a friend from my office.
We wanted to bring Danny, but I couldn't find a girl for him.

I think it'll be fun this evening.
The group that'll be there tonight plays terrific music for dancing.
My friend, Mark, loves dancing.
He'll be very happy.

Maybe some of my other friends'll be there, too.
We often go there.
It's our favorite discotheque.

Lesson 18

We like it for dancing, but not for sitting and listening.

The music's too loud for listening, and sitting is boring.

I hope it won't be too crowded tonight.

PART 2

Getting a table

- Receptionist* Can I help you?
Steve Yes, we'd like a table near the dance floor.
There'll be four of us.
- Receptionist* Four?
Steve Yes. Another boy'll be with us.
He'll be here soon.
- Receptionist* Is this table O.K.?
Steve Yes, fine.
This isn't bad, is it?
- Sandra* No, it's good.
Are we too early?
- Steve* No. Mark'll be here in a few minutes.
Where did Laurie go?
- Sandra* She went to the ladies' room.
She'll be here soon.

Lesson 18

- Steve* Here's Mark . . . hi!
Sandra, I'd like you to meet Mark Fagan.
Mark, this is Sandra Warner.
- Mark* I'm sorry I'm late. I had to go to the garage.
- Steve* Why did you have to go to the garage?
- Mark* To park my car.
I couldn't find a parking space.
- Steve* Neither could I.

Getting drinks

- Steve* I'll get some drinks.
What'll you have?
- Mark* I'll have a beer.
Do you know what kind they have?
- Steve* No, I don't.
- Mark* Neither do I.
- Steve* I'll be back in a few minutes.
- Mark* Where's the group?
- Laurie* The boys are taking a break.
- Mark* Do you know what the group's name is?
- Laurie* No. I couldn't read the name on the drum.
- Mark* Neither could I. When'll they be back?
- Laurie* In a few minutes.
- Mark* What's the music like?

Lesson 18

- Laurie* It's terrific for dancing.
I'm sorry my brother isn't here.
- Mark* Why?
- Laurie* He loves this kind of music.
- Mark* Why didn't he come?
- Laurie* Steve couldn't find a girl for him.

Students

- Laurie* Do you work with Steve?
- Mark* Yes, for the summer. I'm still a student.
- Laurie* You won't be here for long, will you?
- Mark* No. I'll be here until the end of August, and then I'll go home.
- Laurie* You won't have any vacation, will you?
- Mark* Oh, yes. I'll have two weeks in the mountains.
- Laurie* And then?
- Mark* Then I'll go to Boston.
- Laurie* Why will you go there?
- Mark* To study at Tufts University.
- Laurie* Oh, I'll be very near there.
- Mark* Where will you be?
- Laurie* I'll be at Smith in Northampton.
- What are you going to study?
- Mark* Business.
- I hope to work for an advertising agency someday.
- And what about you?
- Laurie* It'll be my first year.
- I don't know what I want to study.
- I think I'd like to be a teacher.
- Mark* Do you know what you want to teach?
- Laurie* I'm not really sure . . . maybe I'll teach Spanish.
- Mark* Do you speak Spanish?
- Laurie* Sure. I've studied it for four years.
- Mark* I can't speak the language but I can understand it.

Lesson 18

One more dance

- Sandra* This place isn't too bad, is it?
- Steve* No, but it's much too crowded.
- Sandra* Yes, it's much too crowded, but it's not too hot, is it?
- Steve* No, it's not. The air conditioning works well. The group's not too loud, is it?
- Sandra* No, it's perfect. Most groups are much too loud.
- Steve* Yes, it seems the bad ones are always too loud.
- Sandra* You don't know what this number is, do you?
- Steve* No. It sounds the same as the last number.
- Sandra* No, it doesn't. It's completely different from the last one. The rhythm's different.
- Steve* Yes. Maybe you're right.
- Sandra* Do you know what time it is?
- Steve* Yes, it's ten of one (12:50).
- Sandra* Oh, it isn't really late, is it?
- Steve* No. Why don't we have one more dance? Don't worry, we won't be too late. Will the Kents be angry?
- Sandra* Oh, no. They won't be angry, but we'll be tired in the morning. Will we be home before two (2:00)?
- Steve* Yes, we will.

PART 3

John's party

Judy Who'll be at John's party tomorrow?

Jim I'll be there. You'll be there.

John'll be there, of course.

He'll be with his girlfriend.

Judy Will Mary be there?

Jim Yes, she'll be there.

Everyone'll be there.

Judy What about John's mother and father?

Jim Oh, no! They won't be there.

They'll be at a friend's house.

The best seats

Mary I hope it won't be too hot in the theater.

Joe No, I don't think it will be.

Mary We won't be too late, will we?

Joe No, we won't.

We'll be on time.

Mary I hope we'll have good seats.

Do you know what kind of seats we'll have?

Joe We'll have the best seats, of course.

LESSON NINETEEN (19)
NINETEENTH (19TH) LESSON

A sales conference

PART 1

We'll take a bus to the airport.

Mr. Kent It's seven thirty (7:30) now.
At eight (8:00) I'll call a taxi.
The taxi'll take us to the airline terminal, and then we'll take a bus to the airport.
I hope Kathy won't be late.
If she's late, we'll have to take a taxi to the airport.
That'll be expensive.
We'll be in Washington D.C. at ten after ten (10:10).
It takes an hour to get there.

If she's late we'll have to take a taxi.

Mr. Tate has asked his secretary to meet us.
She'll take us to his office.
When we get to Mr. Tate's office, I'll go with him to the conference and Kathy'll go with his wife.
They'll spend the day together.

Lesson 19

I don't know what they'll do.
I hope Kathy'll enjoy her day with Mrs. Tate.

I think the conference'll be very interesting.
I hope I'll see some of my old friends.
That'll be nice.

PART 2

At the office

Secretary This is our office, Mr. Kent.
I'll tell Mr. Tate you're here.

Mr. Kent When he's ready, we'll go into his office.

Secretary Oh, no. When I tell him you're here, he'll want to see you immediately.

Mr. Tate Hello, Dave.
I hope you had a pleasant trip.

Mr. Kent Yes, it was the most enjoyable trip we've had in a long time.

Bruce, I'd like you to meet my wife, Kathy.
Kathy, this is Bruce Tate.

You met before . . . at a sales conference about four years ago.

Mr. Tate Oh, yes. I remember very well.

Lesson 19

Mrs. Kent When we met, you had to hurry away for an appointment.

Mr. Kent Where will your wife meet Kathy, Bruce?

Mr. Tate She'll be here soon.

She'll be a little late because she had to go to the dentist's this morning.

When she arrives, Dave and I'll go to the conference.

She'll take Kathy sightseeing or shopping.

At the conference

Mr. Kent Who'll represent our Boston office at the conference?

Mr. Tate A couple of fellows will be there from Boston.

Mr. Kent Will Joe Boyd be there?

Mr. Tate Yes, he's the manager of the sales department.
Ah, there he is . . . Joe!

Mr. Boyd Hello, Bruce.

Mr. Tate You remember Dave Kent, don't you?
He was at our conference in Chicago four years ago.

Mr. Boyd Oh, yes . . . and then you went to our Geneva office.

Mr. Kent That's right.

Lesson 19

Mr. Boyd Where will you go next?

Mr. Kent I'm not sure.

When I met the manager of our New York office, he offered me a job.

Mr. Boyd Will you take it?

Mr. Kent Maybe.

When we go back to New York City, I'll discuss it with my wife.

Mr. Boyd If I were you, I'd take it.

Mr. Kent I'll have to think about it.

Mr. Boyd We'll discuss it later.

If we don't hurry, we'll be late for this meeting.

After the general meeting

Mr. Kent That was the most interesting general meeting I've ever attended.

Mr. Tate Yes, it was certainly more interesting than the one we had last year.

Mr. Boyd And more enjoyable, too.

Mr. Kent Well, it's always satisfying to hear about success and progress.

Mr. Boyd I didn't hear everything the president said.
Where are we going to open new offices?

Mr. Kent In Amsterdam and Hamburg.

Mr. Tate And when they're open, we'll have five European offices: Amsterdam, Hamburg, Paris, London and Milan.

a computer

Lesson 19

- Mr. Boyd* What about Stockholm, Madrid and Geneva?
Mr. Tate Oh, yes. That's eight.
Mr. Kent But remember, the other two large American computer companies have ten European offices.
Mr. Tate But our sales are higher.
Mr. Kent That's true. Our production has expanded more rapidly.
When will our new offices open?
Mr. Tate They'll open next January.

Another Manhattan

- Mr. Kent* We'll have to go soon, Bruce.
Our wives will be back.
Mr. Tate Oh, no. They won't be back yet.
Shall we have another drink with Joe?
Mr. Boyd Yes, I think you should have another drink with me.
Mr. Kent Oh, no. We really can't.
Mr. Boyd That's ridiculous.
Of course you can.
Waiter, three Manhattans, please.
Mr. Tate About your job offer, Dave . . .
I think you should take it.
Mr. Kent Well, I don't think Kathy enjoys city life.
Mr. Tate If you work in New York City, you can live in the country.
If I were you, I'd buy a house in Connecticut.
Mr. Kent But it takes so long to get into New York City.
Mr. Tate You're absolutely wrong.
It only takes about an hour.
Really, Dave, you should take the job.
If you don't, you'll be sorry.

Lesson 19

PART 3

Three hours by plane

- Jim* How long does it take to get to Chicago?
- Harry* It takes about three hours by plane.
- Jim* If I leave tomorrow morning, I'll be there by the afternoon.
- Harry* And if you go by train, it'll take about twenty-four hours.

Vacation

- Pat* It's much too nice for sitting inside today.
- Harry* Yes, it's a good day for walking.
- Pat* The mountains aren't far from here, are they?
- Harry* No, but I can't walk there today.
- Pat* Neither can I, and tomorrow will be Sunday.
- Harry* Yes, and we can't walk there on Sunday, can we?
- Pat* No, there'll be too many people.

LESSON TWENTY (20)
TWENTIETH (20TH) LESSON

Sightseeing in Washington D.C.

PART 1

Mr. Kent We're sorry we don't have more time for sightseeing.
We arrived yesterday morning and we have to leave tonight.
Yesterday morning Kathy did some shopping and after lunch she did some sightseeing.
I had to go to the sales conference and so I couldn't do any sightseeing.
Last night we were much too tired to do anything.

When Kathy's ready, we'll go downstairs for breakfast.

During breakfast we'll plan our day.

Actually we'll only think about the morning because at one thirty (1:30) we're meeting the Tates.

They plan to do some sightseeing with us after lunch.
If the weather's nice, we'll have a picnic in the park.
It looks as if it'll be a nice day.
I hope it won't be too hot.

PART 2

Finding the map

Mrs. Kent Let's sit here by the front window.

Mr. Kent No. That table's much too small.

If we sit at a larger table, we can open the map.

Mrs. Kent O.K. Shall we sit here?

Mr. Kent No. I'd prefer to sit near the back window.

Don't you want to sit by a window?

Mrs. Kent Yes, of course I do. When I wanted to sit by the front window, you didn't want to.

Mr. Kent The table by the front window was too small, much too small.

Mrs. Kent Let's look at the map now.

Mr. Kent Where is it? Don't you have it?

Mrs. Kent No, I think you have it.

Didn't you have it among your business papers?

Lesson 20

- Mr. Kent* No. When I saw it upstairs it was between your shopping bag and your writing paper, so I think you should look in your shopping bag.
- Mrs. Kent* I know you're wrong, but I'll look . . .
- Mr. Kent* I hope it's there.
- Mrs. Kent* You were right. Here it is.
- Mr. Kent* Here's our waitress with our breakfast. We'll look at the map after breakfast.

Looking at the map

- Mrs. Kent* We're here, on M Street, and we're going to meet the Tates at the entrance to the art museum.
- Mr. Kent* That's ideal.
We'll go east on Constitution Avenue and when we get to the Senate Buildings we'll turn right.
- Mrs. Kent* Yes, then after we've visited the Capitol, we'll walk along the other side of the Mall to the museum.
- Mr. Kent* Maybe we should walk down the middle of the Mall.
- Mrs. Kent* O.K. That sounds as if it'll be nice.
- Mr. Kent* Shall we walk or shall we take the bus to Constitution Avenue? I always prefer walking.

Lesson 20

- Mrs. Kent* I usually prefer taking the bus.
But wait a minute!
We've forgotten the White House.
Don't you want to see that?
- Mr. Kent* Oh. Of course I do. Let's go there first.
- Mrs. Kent* Good. Let's go.

The Supreme Court

- Mrs. Kent* Do you know what that building is?
- Mr. Kent* Isn't that the Treasury Department?
- Mrs. Kent* No, we walked by the Treasury earlier so it can't be that.
Let's look at the map.
- Mr. Kent* It's the Supreme Court, isn't it?
- Mrs. Kent* Don't you think it looks like old Roman architecture?
- Mr. Kent* No, it looks like Greek architecture.
- Mrs. Kent* Shall we go inside?
- Mr. Kent* It's closed, so we can't.
- Mrs. Kent* Can't we go inside the Capitol either?
- Mr. Kent* Yes, we can, but we'll have to hurry.
Remember, we planned to meet the Tates at one-thirty (1:30).
- Mrs. Kent* Oh, yes. If we hurry, we'll be on time.

The Supreme Court

Walking in Washington D.C.

The White House

Mrs. Kent Didn't you drive by the White House when you went to the conference yesterday?

Mr. Kent Yes, we did, but we drove by it very fast.
Let's walk around it today.
I always prefer walking to driving.

Mrs. Kent Yes, so do I, but I get tired very easily.

Mr. Kent If you get tired today, we'll take a bus.
Aren't we there now?
I can see the top of the White House.

Mrs. Kent Oh, yes. That's the back of it.
Don't you think we should walk around to the front?

Mr. Kent Yes, let's do that.

Mrs. Kent And then if we go right, we'll be on Fifteenth (15th) Street.

Mr. Kent Yes, and then when we get to Constitution Avenue we'll turn left and we can walk straight to the Senate Buildings.

Mrs. Kent It seems as if our plan'll be perfect.

Lesson 20

PART 3

Studying

Mrs. Slade John! Where are you?

John I'm upstairs.

Mrs. Slade What are you doing?

John I'm watching television.

Mrs. Slade Come downstairs immediately.

I want you to do your studying.

John I prefer watching television, Mom.

Mrs. Slade It's much too early to watch television.

John But I don't like studying, Mom.

Mrs. Slade Don't you want to go to college?

John Yes, Mom.

Oh, O.K. I'll go into the back room.

The lake

Harry Shall we dance?

Judy What a good idea. Thank you.

Harry Let's go to the front by the group.

Judy O.K. But it looks as if it's very crowded there.

Harry Well, if you get hot or tired, we'll go outside.

It's very nice by the lake.

Judy Let's stay inside.

Washington D.C.

Going to Connecticut

PART 1

Mr. Wiese Danny, Laurie and Sandra are going to meet me here soon.
I hope they'll be able to find me.
They haven't been at Grand Central Station before so they might have trouble.
It's a huge place so they might get lost.
I'll worry about them until I see them.
Before I left my office, I called their hotel.
Danny was ready but neither of the girls was ready.
He was angry.

They're coming to our house for the weekend.
I hope we'll have good weather.

Lesson 21

If the weather's nice, they'll be able to spend a lot of time on the beach.

They like to swim.

My children like to swim, too.

So do I.

I hope it'll be a nice weekend.

PART 2

At the railroad station

Laurie Hello, Mr. Wiese. We're not late, are we?

Mr. Wiese Hello, Laurie.

No, you're not late. I was a little early.

Laurie When does the train leave?

Mr. Wiese It leaves at four twenty-seven (4:27).

If we hurry, we'll be able to catch it.

Laurie Is it a local train?

Mr. Wiese No, it's an express.

Laurie Mr. Wiese, shall I buy the tickets?

Mr. Wiese Oh, yes. I forgot about them.

There's the window.

Laurie Do you know how much the fare is?

Mr. Wiese Three, twenty-five ($3.25) for a one-way ticket or six dollars ($6.00) for a round-trip ticket.

Lesson 21

- Laurie* Shall I buy round-trip tickets?
Mr. Wiese Yes, and ask for a timetable, too.
You'll need it on Sunday.
Laurie O.K. I'll meet you at the track entrance.
Which track is ours?
Mr. Wiese Track twenty-three.
I'll take your suitcase.
Which one is yours?
Laurie That one's mine.
Mr. Wiese Hurry. The train leaves at four twenty-seven (4:27).
Laurie On track twenty-three?
Mr. Wiese Yes.

The suitcases

- Mr. Wiese* Let's sit in this car.
Girls, you sit here.
Danny and I'll put your suitcases on the rack.
Whose is this one?
Danny That's Sandra's.
Mr. Wiese Hers is heavy.
Danny Yes. She always brings a lot of things with her.
She's always changing her clothes.
Mr. Wiese Is this hers, too?
Danny No, that's Laurie's.

Lesson 21

- Mr. Wiese* And where's yours?
Danny Mine's here. It's this small bag.
I've only brought my bathing suit and a few other things.
I hope we'll be able to swim.
Mr. Wiese Of course you will.
Danny Will we be able to swim when we get there?
Mr. Wiese Yes, I think so.
Although the tide'll be low, it'll be O.K.
You won't be able to dive off the dock.
When the tide's high, you'll be able to dive.
Danny That's O.K.
I like to dive but I prefer to swim.

Sports

she likes to swim

she likes to dive

- Mr. Wiese* Don't the girls like to swim?
Danny Laurie likes to swim and she also likes to dive.
She's very good.
Mr. Wiese And what about Sandra?
Danny I know she likes to sunbathe.
Mr. Wiese Doesn't she like to swim?

she likes to sunbathe

- Danny* I'm not sure.
Girls never talk about sports.
Mr. Wiese Yes, that's true. Do you like other sports?
Danny Oh, yes.
Mr. Wiese What do you like to do in the winter?

Lesson 21

Danny I like to skate and I love to ski.
Fred likes to ski, doesn't he?

Mr. Wiese Yes, he does.

Although he didn't learn to ski until we moved to Connecticut, he's very good now.

Danny I didn't learn until I went to France for a vacation, but I learned quickly, too.

Mr. Wiese Does either of your parents ski?

Danny No, neither of them skis, but Laurie does.

he likes to skate

he loves to ski

A long train ride

Mr. Wiese It's five thirty (5:30) and the train arrives at five forty-two (5:42).

Danny We're almost there.

That didn't seem like a long ride.

Mr. Wiese Although it takes an hour and fifteen minutes, it never seems very long.

Danny Shall we get the baggage down before the train stops?

Mr. Wiese Yes, let's take it down now.

Danny Are these suitcases ours?

Mr. Wiese No. Neither of them is ours.
Ours are on this side.

Danny Oh, yes. I remember.

The girls have grey suitcases. These are theirs.
And this briefcase is yours, isn't it?

Mr. Wiese Yes. Thank you. We're almost at the station.
Let's walk toward the door.

Lesson 21

PART 3

Dollar bills

Harry Whose are these two dollar bills?

Jim They're mine.

Harry They aren't yours.
They're John's, aren't they?

Jim No, they aren't his.
His are new.

Harry What are yours like?

Jim Mine are old.

Harry Neither of these bills is old.

Friends

Pat Mary, will you be able to help me this evening?

Mary No, I won't, but I'll be able to help you tomorrow.

Pat John, can you help me today?

John I'm sorry. I can't help you today or tomorrow but I'll be able to help you the day after tomorrow.

Pat Harry. What about you? Can you help me?

Harry I don't think so.

I won't be able to help you until I see you next week.

Pat What helpful friends!

What happened

PART 1

Laurie We've been at the hotel since about ten o'clock (10:00).

Mom and Dad'll probably be back by midnight. They'd hoped to get back earlier but they missed the plane.

They called us a little while ago.

Mom was angry because the taxi driver had driven so slowly.

The plane had left when they arrived at the airport. If they'd arrived fifteen minutes sooner, they would have caught it.

We're waiting to hear about their trip.

Neither of them had visited Washington D.C. before they went on this trip.

Both of them were quite excited.

Dad had read a little about the city before they left. After he'd read about it, he was even more excited.

Lesson 22

We're anxious to tell them about our weekend, too.
If they'd caught the plane, they would have been here by now.

We'll probably be awake for a long time.
I hope I won't go to sleep before they return.

PART 2

The White House

Laurie Tell me about your weekend.
What did you do after you'd arrived at Mr. Tate's office?

Mrs. Kent I spent the day with Mrs. Tate.
After Dad and Mr. Tate had left for the conference, she and I went out.

Laurie Did anyone else go with you?

Mrs. Kent No, no one else went with us.
If someone else had gone with us, it would have caused confusion.

Mr. Kent If you have a lot of women together, you'll have trouble.

Laurie Where did you go, Mom?

Mrs. Kent To the White House.

- Laurie* Did you go through the whole house?
Mrs. Kent Oh, no, a lot of it's private.
Laurie Did you see any famous people?
Mrs. Kent No, I don't think so.
There was a group of men who looked important but I didn't recognize any of them.
Laurie What else did you do?
Mrs. Kent After we'd toured the White House, we shopped for a little while.
Laurie Did you take your camera with you?
Mrs. Kent Yes, we took it with us on Sunday.
We took a lot of pictures of our capital.

Laurie's train ride

- Mrs. Kent* Tell us about your weekend.
Did you have fun?
Laurie Yes, we had a marvelous time.
Mrs. Kent Did you have any trouble on Friday?
Laurie No, after you and Dad had gone we packed our stuff.
Mrs. Kent And did you meet Mr. Wiese on time?
Laurie Yes, he'd called us before he left his office.
Mrs. Kent What did he do that for?
Laurie To remind us, I guess.
Mrs. Kent Was the train ride all right?

Lesson 22

- Laurie* I guess so.
I'd brought a book, so I read that.
- Mrs. Kent* Don't your eyes hurt when you read on a train?
- Laurie* No, mine don't.
Do yours?
- Mrs. Kent* Yes. They're probably weaker than yours.
- Laurie* Mine are very strong.
- Mrs. Kent* You're lucky.

Danny's wet clothes

- Mr. Kent* I guess Danny's sleeping, isn't he?
- Laurie* Yes, he'd gone to sleep before you called.
He and Fred woke up early this morning.
After they'd played ball for a couple of hours, they went out in the boat.
- Mr. Kent* But the Wieses don't have a boat.
Whose boat was it?
- Laurie* A neighbor's. Fred had borrowed it.
- Mr. Kent* That was nice.
Did they have fun?
- Laurie* Oh, yes. It was very funny, too.
They stopped to look at the motor and Danny fell out of the boat.
All of his clothes were wet when the boys returned.

Lesson 22

Mrs. Kent What did Mrs. Wiese say?

Laurie Nothing; she laughed.

Mrs. Kent Did everyone else laugh?

Laurie Yes, we all laughed.

After he'd changed his clothes, I put them on the clothes line.

They're dry now.

Mrs. Kent That's good.

The picnic

Mrs. Kent What else did you do today?

Laurie After we'd gone for a swim, Sandra and I helped Mrs. Wiese.

We cooked food for a picnic.

Mrs. Kent Is Mrs. Wiese a good cook?

Laurie Yes, she's an excellent cook and a great hostess. After we'd been there for a couple of hours, we didn't feel like guests: we felt like members of the family.

Mr. Kent Where did you have your picnic?

Laurie Oh, that was an adventure.

We went out in the boat Fred had borrowed.

Mrs. Kent What did you do that for?

Laurie To get to the island.

Mr. Kent Oh, you had your picnic on an island.

- Laurie* That's right. It was great.
The sun was hot, the sea was warm, and the air was fresh and clean.
What a day!
- Mr. Kent* It sounds like a good day.
Did everyone else enjoy it, too?
- Laurie* Oh, yes.
We'll probably never forget it.

PART 3

Sightseeing

- Bob* Where did you go yesterday?
- Pat* In the morning we went to the zoo.
- Bob* Where else did you go?
- Pat* After we'd gone to the zoo, we went to a museum.
- Bob* What else did you see?
- Pat* The Empire State Building.
- Bob* Before you went on the river or after?
- Pat* After. But before we saw the Empire State Building, we'd walked down Fifth Avenue. When we'd spent all our money there, we went to see the Empire State Building.

Lesson 22

Pictures

Andy I want to take a picture.

Pat You can't take pictures in the White House.

Andy Who can't?

Pat No one can. It's private.

You have to leave cameras at the main entrance.

Andy Who? Everyone?

Pat Yes, everyone.

The White House

The doctor

PART 1

Mrs. Kent I'll have to take Danny to a doctor today.
When he woke up this morning, he didn't feel well.

At breakfast he complained about a headache.
He'd taken aspirin but that hadn't helped.

After we'd had breakfast I called my sister and she gave me her doctor's number.

After I'd explained our problem, his nurse gave us an early appointment so that I wouldn't waste the whole day.

If we were at home, I wouldn't worry about him, but I want to be careful here so that he won't ruin his vacation.

If I told him to stay in bed, he'd probably be angry, but if the doctor tells him to go to bed, he'll go.

Danny hates to go to the doctor's.
He's afraid of doctors.
He hates to take medicine and he's afraid of injections.

PART 2

An accident

- Mrs. Kent* I'm Mrs. Ketcham's sister, Mrs. Kent.
Nurse Hello. I'm Miss Anders, Dr. Shenk's nurse.
Mrs. Kent And this is my son, Danny.
Nurse How do you feel?
Danny Not very well.
Nurse The doctor won't be able to see you yet.
There's been an emergency that he must take care of first.
Danny Was there an accident?
Nurse Yes, a little while ago a woman came into the office with a child.
She'd put a towel around his head.
Danny Why had she done that?
Nurse So that the bleeding would stop.
Danny What had happened?

an accident

- Nurse* The child had fallen from his bicycle.
When he fell he hit his head against the edge of the sidewalk.
He'd cut his face and head very badly but he didn't have to go to the hospital.
Danny Had he broken any bones?
Nurse No, his mother thought he'd broken his arm or his leg but he hadn't.

Lesson 23

A cold

Doctor I'm sorry you had to wait so long.

Danny That's all right.

Was the boy hurt badly?

Doctor No. After I'd cleaned his head, he felt much better.

So did his mother.

The blood had frightened her.

Danny She probably thought it was much worse than it really was.

Doctor Yes, mothers are always worrying about their children.

Now, what's the matter with you?

Danny I have a sore throat and a headache.

Doctor Do you feel tired?

Danny Yes, my whole body feels weak.

I really feel terrible.

Doctor I'm sorry to hear that.
I'll have to examine you.

a headache

Lesson 23

An injection

Doctor Open your mouth wide so that I can look at your throat.

Yes, it's very red.

I'll have to give you an injection.

Danny Can't you give me pills?

Doctor An injection is better than pills.

If I gave you pills, you'd probably be sick for a few days, but, if I give you an injection, you'll feel better tomorrow.

Danny Are you sure?

I hate injections.

Doctor Yes, I'm sure.

I advise you to have an injection.

Danny Will I be able to go out tomorrow?

Doctor Probably, if you rest today.

If you get plenty of rest, you'll feel better.

Danny Good. I'll sleep today so that I'll be able to go out tomorrow.

Advice

Doctor Danny's caught a cold.
His throat's very red and he has a temperature.

Danny I'll be better soon.

Mrs. Kent Will he?

Doctor Yes, I've given him an injection so that he'll feel better soon.

Mrs. Kent What's your advice, doctor?

Doctor My advice is that he should get plenty of sleep today so that he won't get tired again.
If he gets too tired, he'll be very sick.

Mrs. Kent Yes, and if he got sick, he wouldn't enjoy his vacation.

Doctor Yes, he won't enjoy his vacation unless he's feeling healthy.

Mrs. Kent And I won't enjoy my vacation unless everyone else is happy, too.

Doctor Oh, I almost forgot.
Here's a prescription for some medicine.
Take it every two hours so that you won't cough.

Lesson 23

PART 3

If . . .

an island

Jim If I had a lot of money, I'd buy an island.

Judy But you don't have a lot of money.

Jim I know. But if I had a lot of money, I'd buy an island.

Judy What would you do, if you bought an island?

Jim If I bought an island, I'd live on it.

Judy If you lived on an island, you might get sick.

Jim Of course, I wouldn't live there unless I had three wives.

Judy What would they do, if you had three wives?

Jim One would clean, one would cook and the other would take care of me.

Judy I'm sorry you don't have a lot of money.

Work tomorrow

Pat I'm going for a swim in the lake.

Tom Why?

Pat So that I'll catch a cold.

Tom If you catch a cold, you'll have to stay in bed.

Pat I guess I will.

Tom Why do you want to catch a cold?

Pat So that I won't have to go to work tomorrow.

College

PART 1

Mr. Ketcham This morning the Kents are coming here so that I can show them the college.
Dave and Kathy hope their son will like it.
Danny doesn't want to go to college.
If he likes it, maybe he'll change his mind.

He doesn't like to study.
His father thinks Danny's lazy.
I don't agree with Dave.
I doubt that Danny's really lazy.
It sounds as if he's interested in other kinds of things.
At his age I didn't want to study either.
You seldom worry about the future when you're his age.

I'll tell him about the advantages of a college education.

Then I'll show him the sports fields.
If he saw the boys on the football field, he'd want to go to college.
And if he sees some of the girls, he'll change his mind very quickly.
I hope he's easy to persuade.

PART 2

Mr. Ketcham's office

Mr. Kent Excuse me. Can you tell me where Mr. Ketcham's office is?

Secretary The next door on the left is his.

Ah, here's Mr. Ketcham now.

Mr. Ketcham Hi, Dave. Where's the rest of your family?

Mr. Kent They're outside.

I suggested they waited out there.

Mr. Ketcham What did you do that for?

Mr. Kent I thought you'd probably be busy.

Mr. Ketcham Nonsense. You should have brought them in.

Mr. Kent They're taking a walk so that they can see where things are.

Lesson 24

Mr. Ketcham I suggest you and Danny and I look around together so that I'll be able to answer his questions.

Mr. Kent Yes, I agree.
If you have too many people, it causes confusion.
You know how it is.

Mr. Ketcham Let's go now.
We don't have any time to waste.

College kids

Mr. Ketcham Hi, Danny. How do you feel today?

Danny I'm not sure how I feel.

Better, I think.

The doctor's advice was good.

Mr. Ketcham How do you like the college?

Danny I doubt that I'll like it, but I like where it is and I like its size.

It looks as if it's very small.

Lesson 24

- Mr. Ketcham* Yes, it's very pleasant.
There are only about two thousand students.
- Danny* What kind of kids go to this college?
- Mr. Ketcham* That's a difficult question to answer.
I guess it's an impossible question to answer.
There are all kinds.
They're difficult to describe.
- Danny* What do they like to do in their spare time?
- Mr. Ketcham* All kinds of things.
There are lots of different kinds of clubs to join.
Some go to the library to study.
- Danny* Do they have to go to the library to study?
- Mr. Ketcham* No, they study where they want to.
- Danny* Do you know what sports they have?
- Mr. Ketcham* Oh, yes, the college has teams for all kinds of sports.
- Danny* It sounds as if it's fun to go to college.

A good suggestion

all kinds of music

Mr. Ketcham If you don't go to college, what'll you do, Danny?

Danny I'm not sure what I'll do.

Mr. Ketcham You really should go to college.

If you have the chance, it's a shame to waste it.

Mr. Kent That's my advice, too.

We've suggested he try it for a year.

Danny But I don't like to study.

Mr. Ketcham What do you like to do?

Danny To play the drums.

I'd like to become a jazz drummer.

Mr. Kent That's a silly thing to say.

You can't become a professional drummer unless you're very good.

Mr. Ketcham Why don't you study music at college?

Danny I doubt that you can study jazz here.

You can study only classical music, can't you?

Mr. Ketcham Of course not.

You can study all kinds of music and there are lots of groups to join.

Danny That's the best suggestion yet.

Lesson 24

What Danny thought.

Mrs. Kent Do you know where the kids are?

Mr. Ketcham At the student center.

I suggested they had a coffee.

Mrs. Kent Do you know what Danny thought?

Mr. Ketcham It seems as if he liked everything.

I think we've persuaded him.

Mrs. Kent Marvelous. How did you change his mind?

Mr. Ketcham Well, I told him about the sports.

Mr. Kent And then he told Danny about the music.

Mr. Ketcham And then Danny saw a group of pretty girls.

Mrs. Kent Why don't you send us some information?

Mr. Ketcham O.K. And if you have any questions to ask, write to me.

You know where the college is.

Its address is on the card.

Mrs. Kent Thanks.

Now, we should go.

PART 3

John's future

Bob John looks as if he's worried.

Pat I agree with you.

Bob Maybe he's worried about his school work.

Pat Yes, if he wants to go to college, he has to do well in high school.

Bob And if he wants to do well in high school, he must not be lazy.

Pat I agree.

Bob I think we have to persuade him to think about his future.

Mary's present

Andy What kind of things does Mary like?

Bob I suggest you ask her.

Andy I can't ask her.

I want to buy her a birthday present.

I think I might buy her a novel.

Bob I doubt that she likes books.

She adores all kinds of clothes.

And most kinds of jewelry.

Andy That's a good suggestion.

A college

Bargains

PART 1

Danny Skip's brought Dad and me to a huge men's store. Their summer sale began this morning. Skip thinks we'll get some good bargains. I hope so.

At the moment Skip and Dad are in the shoe department looking at shoes. There's a crowd of men waiting to buy shoes. I don't need shoes so Dad has suggested I look at something else.

Skip thinks I should buy a new watch because some of the watches are half-price.

I've found a watch I like but it's expensive. I doubt that I can afford it. Dad won't allow me to buy an expensive watch. I tried to choose a less expensive one but they're all ugly except this one.

Lesson 25

None of the others is as attractive as this one.
I think it's a bargain.
I'm afraid Dad won't think so.

PART 2

Where's the suit department?

Danny Did you buy a pair of shoes, Dad?

Mr. Kent No. None of the ones I liked was the right size.
My feet are very wide and most of the shoes were for narrow feet.

Danny That's a shame.

Is Skip still there looking at shoes?

Mr. Kent I don't think so.

I left him paying the clerk.

He's probably in the suit department now, waiting for us.

We shouldn't keep him waiting.

Danny Do you know where it is?

Mr. Kent I'm afraid not.

Why don't you ask that clerk?

Lesson 25

- Danny* Pardon me.
Can you tell me where the suit department is,
please?
- Man* I'm afraid not.
I'm a customer, not a clerk.
Any clerk will be able to tell you.
There's one standing behind the handkerchief counter.
He'll be able to tell you.
- Danny* I hope so.

Escalators

- Danny* Is this the suit department?
- Mr. Kent* I think so.
- Danny* Oh, yes. There's Skip, standing in front of the cash register.
- Mr. Kent* Where?
- Danny* There, behind that fat man.
- Mr. Kent* Oh, yes. I doubt that he'll see us.
I suggest we walk toward him.
- Danny* It's not necessary to hurry: he's seen us.
- Skip* Did you get lost?

Lesson 25

- Danny* I'm afraid so.
A clerk working on the first floor gave us the wrong directions.
We've been on every floor except the basement.
- Skip* What a shame.
I should have stayed with you.
- Danny* It's all right.
I like to ride on escalators.

A bargain

- Mr. Kent* Do you think I'll be able to find a suit here?
- Skip* Yes, I think so.
They have any size and any style you want.
What color do you like?
- Mr. Kent* Any color except blue.
- Skip* What about this brown one?
Don't you think it's smart?
- Mr. Kent* Yes, and it looks as if it's my size.
- Skip* How tall are you?
- Mr. Kent* Five feet, eleven inches (5 ft. 11 in.).
- Skip* What's your chest measurement?
- Mr. Kent* About forty inches (40 in.).

Skip That's a shame. This one's too large.
I suggest you try this one.
It's only seventy-five dollars ($75).
I'm sure it's worth much more.

Mr. Kent You're right.
Don't you think the material's good?

Skip Yes, the quality's excellent.

Mr. Kent I'll try it on and if it fits, I'll buy it.
It's a bargain.

Danny's watch

Mr. Kent How much money have you spent, Danny?

Danny I haven't added it up yet.

Mr. Kent Well, here's a pencil and a piece of paper.
Add it up and then we'll discuss the watch.
Maybe you'll be able to afford it.

Danny I hope so.

The total amount's fourteen dollars and forty cents
($14.40).

Mr. Kent That's not bad.
I thought you'd spent more.

Danny Well, I bought the least expensive shirts and the least expensive tie.
The tie was less expensive than the one I showed you.

Mr. Kent Good. Let's look at the watch you want.

Danny I've chosen a good watch.
It'll be necessary to have a good one for college.

Mr. Kent College? . . . Oh, yes . . . you'll need a good one for college.

Danny Is Skip in the watch department waiting for us?

Mr. Kent I hope not.
No . . . He went to get some cigarettes and matches.

Danny Doesn't he smoke a pipe?

Mr. Kent Yes, but he smokes cigarettes, too.
He's going to meet us at the barber shop.

Lesson 25

PART 3

Matches

Harry Pardon me. Do you have a light, please?

Bob I'm afraid not. I don't smoke.

Harry That's a shame. None of my matches lights.
They're wet.

Bob I suggest you ask that man sitting in the corner.
He smokes.

Harry Pardon me. Do you have a match, please?

Joe Yes. I think so. Here you are.

Harry Thank you. Would you like a cigarette?

Joe No, thank you. I don't smoke cigarettes.
I only smoke a pipe.

Stores

A sad day for Sandra

PART 1

Sandra I used to like going home but today I'm sad.
I wish I weren't going home.
I can't believe I've already been here for two and a half weeks.
I used to think that three weeks was plenty of time for a vacation.
Now I wish I had six weeks.

I'll be returning by ship.
If the weather's good, I'll be spending a lot of time sunbathing on the deck.
If it's not good, I'll be sitting in my cabin.

I know I'll be thinking about Steve.
Although we've only known each other for two weeks, I'll miss him.
He's promised to write and we'll be seeing each other in November.
He'll be staying in Geneva for a week.
He hasn't traveled abroad before.
He used to travel only in the United States.

Lesson 26

PART 2

A letter

Mrs. Kent This letter belongs to you, Sandra.
Sandra I wonder who it's from . . . the Wieses.

6 Park Drive
Fairfield, Connecticut 06430
July 13, 1971

Dear Sandra,

We wish we could be at the ship to say "good-bye" to you but, unfortunately, Mike has to work.

Thank you for the beautiful vase you sent us. I've put it on the little table under the picture window. First I put it on the narrow shelf above the television but I was afraid that it might drop and break.

Don't forget to call our friend, David Kilgour, when you get back to Geneva. He's a very interesting person. He used to work at Mike's bank, but now he works for another bank.

If you come back to New York, remember to call us. We'd like to see you again.

We'll be thinking of you.

Much love,
Karen and Mike
The Wieses

Lesson 26

A surprise

Mr. Kent There's someone knocking at the door.

Sandra I wonder who it is.

Steve Hello, everyone.

Sandra Steve! What are you doing here?

Steve I have to take some papers to our office near the docks, so I drove here first.

Sandra How nice!

Mr. Kent Kathy, it's time we looked for Danny and Laurie. I think they've gotten lost.

Mrs. Kent I wonder where they are.

Sandra You didn't forget to ask about your business trip to Europe, did you?

Steve No, I remembered to ask.

Sandra How long will you be staying in Geneva?

Steve I'll be staying there for nine days.

Sandra Pardon me. What did you say?

Steve I said, "I'll be staying there for nine days".

Sandra How wonderful!

Lesson 26

A form

- Sandra* Oh, darn!
- Steve* What's the matter?
- Sandra* I've lost the form they gave me.
- Steve* Have you checked your pocketbook?
- Sandra* Yes, it's not there.
- Steve* Is it under your suitcase?
- Sandra* No.
- Steve* Between these two books?
- Sandra* No.
- Steve* Among these papers?
- Sandra* No.
- Steve* On the shelf below the sink?
- Sandra* No.
Oh, here it is . . .
- Steve* Where?
- Sandra* I found it in my pocket.
I guess I'm nervous.
I wonder why that is.
I didn't use to be nervous.
- Steve* If you give me a pen, I'll fill out the form.
Last name?
- Sandra* Warner.
- Steve* First name?
- Sandra* Sandra.
- Steve* Address?
- Sandra* 34 Rue Temple, Geneva, Switzerland.
- Steve* Date of birth?
- Sandra* May 2nd, 1950.
- Steve* Place of birth?
- Sandra* Honolulu, Hawaii.
- Steve* Sex?
- Sandra* Female.
- Steve* Nationality?

Lesson 26

Sandra U.S.A.
Steve Passport number?
Sandra F296387.
Steve Marital status?
Sandra Single.
Steve O.K. Now, you sign it.

Good-bye, Sandra.

Mr. Kent I guess it's time we left.
Sandra Thanks for everything.
Mrs. Kent We wish you were going to California with us.
Sandra So do I.
Thanks again. Good-bye.
Mr. Kent Good-bye.
We'll be watching from the pier.

Lesson 26

PART 3

Bob used to smoke.

Harry Do you smoke, Bob?

Bob No, I used to smoke.

Harry Do you drink?

Bob No, not now. I used to drink.

I'm married now and I have four children.
I can't afford to drink or smoke, and my wife won't allow me to smoke.

Skip's job

PART 1

Skip Yesterday, while we were shopping, Dave asked me about my job, so I've asked him to come with me today.

I'll be inspecting two factories.

Each factory makes a product which I advertise.

The first one which we'll be visiting is a candy factory.

The other factory which we'll be inspecting manufactures business machines.

The computers are made here and then they're sold in Europe.

They're nearly the same as the ones which Mr. Kent sells.

Recently I've visited a number of my clients. I used to work in my office all of the time. I rarely saw my clients outside of my office.

They usually came here: I seldom went to their factories.

They used to invite me to their factories occasionally.

My job is much more interesting now.

It didn't use to be nearly as enjoyable.

Now it's the kind of job which is completely different each day.

PART 2

How stupid!

Skip Hi, Jill. Is this where Mr. Burbank's office is?

Jill Don't you know where it is yet?

Skip No, I don't. That's why I asked.

Jill Oh . . . men! How stupid they are!

It's on the hall which you've just passed.

Skip Oh! That's where it is.

Jill Yes, that's where it's always been.

Skip I was only joking. I knew where it was.

I needed an excuse to talk to you.

While I was driving here, I was thinking about you.

Would you like to go to Jeff's party?

Lesson 27

- Jill* Is that next Saturday?
Skip Yes, that's when it is.
Jill I'd love to go.
I'm sorry I was so rude a minute ago.
I was getting angry just before you arrived.
Skip Why?
Jill I was trying to fix this darn machine.
Skip What's the matter with it?
Jill I don't know.
I've pushed each button and pulled each handle but it still doesn't work.
Skip Why don't you plug it in?
Electric machines need electricity.
Jill Oh. That's how it works.
Skip Oh . . . women! How stupid they are!

Mr. Burbank

- Skip* Sorry I kept you waiting, Dave.
Mr. Kent I was wondering what you were doing.
Skip I was talking to a secretary.
Mr. Kent Oh. That's why you enjoy your job.
Skip That's one of the reasons, I guess.
What were you doing while I was in that office?

Lesson 27

Mr. Kent While you were talking to her, I was reading a magazine.

It's published by the Candy Makers' Association.
Do you mind if I keep the magazine?

Skip I don't mind if you keep it but I'll ask
Mr. Burbank if he minds. Ah, here he is.

Mr. Burbank Hello. Do you mind if we delay our tour for a few minutes?

While I was dictating a letter to my secretary,
my wife called.

Do you mind if I call her?

Skip Of course we don't mind.

Made by machine

Mr. Burbank Now, you've seen how the chocolate is made.
Would you like to see how each candy is filled?

Mr. Kent Yes, please.

I've never completely understood that.

Mr. Burbank You understood it when it was explained, didn't you, Skip?

Skip Oh, yes. I even wrote a report about it.

Mr. Burbank May I introduce Mr. Hart, the foreman.
He'll explain how the candies are filled.

- Mr. Hart* Yes, I'll show you how they're filled.
I filled some a few minutes ago.
- Mr. Kent* They're not made by hand, are they?
- Mr. Hart* Oh, no. They're made by machines which I'll show you later.

Filling candies

- Mr. Hart* The candy's filled like this.
First you choose a filling from one of these dishes.
Each dish contains a different filling.
Then you put it into this bag which is attached to the filling needle.
When you're ready, you stick the needle into the bottom of the chocolate shell and then you squeeze the bag, like this.
Of course, this is done by machines.
- Mr. Kent* I see. Is this the only method which you can use?
- Mr. Hart* Oh, no. There are a lot of other methods.
- Mr. Kent* Who puts them into the boxes?
- Mr. Hart* That's done by a machine which is able to count them automatically.
It occasionally makes a mistake, but each box is checked by a girl, before it's wrapped.

Lesson 27

PART 3

The knife

Policeman What were you doing last night at ten o'clock?

Harry I was listening to the radio.

Policeman I see.

While you were listening to your radio, someone stuck a knife into an old lady.

Harry Where? Outside my house?

Policeman I didn't say that, sir.

Harry A knife was stuck into an old lady.
How terrible!

Policeman Someone saw a man running toward your house.

Harry A man was seen running toward my house?
But I was listening to my radio.

Policeman I didn't say "you", sir.
I said "a man".

Lesson 27

The camera

Jim How is a picture taken with this camera?

Judy I'm not sure how it works.

I think you hold the camera like this.

Jim A picture's taken each time that button is pushed, isn't it?

Judy No, not that button — the button which is on the top. You push it like this.

In a factory

A new job

PART 1

Mr. Kent An interesting job has been advertised in the newspaper.
A sales manager's required by a large company.
I've written to them but I haven't been contacted yet.
This is a copy of the letter which I sent.

advertised in the newspaper

Beardsley Hotel
91 East Thirty-ninth Street
New York City, New York 10016
July 8, 1971

Personnel Manager
World Computer Company
Main Street
White Plains, New York 10604

Dear Sir:

Sales Manager Ref: JG/Q

I am interested in the position of sales manager which you advertised in today's newspaper.

I am presently employed by Computers Incorporated. For the last three years I have been in their Geneva office. While I was there I was promoted to general manager of the sales, advertising and marketing departments. Other executive positions which I have held have included production manager for another computer company and chairman of research for the same firm.

I hope that an application form will be sent to me.

Yours truly,

David Kent

PART 2

Worry

Mr. Kent Today's mail hasn't been brought up yet, has it?

Mrs. Kent No. The receptionist's been asked to call us when the mail arrives.

You haven't heard from W.C.C. yet, have you?

Mr. Kent No. I'm worried by their silence.

Mrs. Kent When was the letter mailed?

Mr. Kent Last Wednesday.

Mrs. Kent Tell me, where are their machines sold?

Mr. Kent In Europe and Asia.

A new office will be opened in Tokyo next month. According to the latest report, W.C.C. has offices in eight countries: the U.S., England, France, Sweden, Italy, Spain, Australia and Canada.

The mail

Mrs. Kent The receptionist's just called.
The mail's just been delivered and ours will be brought up immediately.

Mr. Kent I'd rather not see it.

Mrs. Kent It's what you were waiting for . . . a reply from W.C.C. Tell me what they say.

Lesson 28

- Mr. Kent* Oh, darn!
The position was filled before my letter arrived.
My letter's been put in their file.
- Mrs. Kent* Pardon me. Where was it put?
- Mr. Kent* In their file.
I'll be contacted when there's another similar vacancy.

A job offer

- Mr. Kent* Why were you smiling while I was reading this letter?
- Mrs. Kent* Because I was reading this one from C.I.
- Mr. Kent* Tell me what C.I. wants.
- Mrs. Kent* Listen to this:

Computers Incorporated
Howard Avenue
Staten Island, New York 10301
July 15, 1971

Dear Mr. Kent,

While we were having lunch last Tuesday, I mentioned a position which is open in our New York office. It is our opinion that the job can be done by you.

Lesson 28

If you accept this position, it will mean that your salary will be increased. I have checked with the accounts department and, according to them, we can offer you an extra thousand dollars a year. You will also be given a four week vacation instead of three weeks.

I have enclosed some documents which show our profit and loss account, and our plans for future expansion. You might like to look at these while you're considering our offer.

Yours truly,

Steve Curtis

The decision

- Mr. Kent* Well, Kathy. What do you think?
- Mrs. Kent* Well . . . It sounds like a good job but I'd rather not live in New York City.
- Mr. Kent* Oh, that's what's worrying you.
Well, don't worry about it.
While I was talking to Steve, I mentioned this and he suggested that we should live on Long Island or in Connecticut.
- Mrs. Kent* Maybe we won't like the east coast.
- Mr. Kent* Well, if we don't like it, we can leave.
I warned Steve about this.
- Mrs. Kent* Are you positive we'll be able to leave if we don't like it?
- Mr. Kent* Yes, I'm sure we will.
- Mrs. Kent* Well . . . O.K. I've been convinced.

Lesson 28

PART 3

An advertisement

Applications are invited for the position of secretary to the advertising manager.

The successful applicant will be required to work in a friendly New York City Office.

She will also be asked to travel abroad occasionally.

She should be between 18 and 25, smart, and interested in languages.

Good salary — 5 day week — 3 weeks' vacation.

Write to: The Personnel Manager
207 Madison Avenue
New York City
New York 10017

A new house

PART 1

Mrs. Kent Dave's called C.I. and he's told them that he's decided to accept their offer.
Now we have to decide where to live and what kind of house to buy.
We've been discussing it all morning.
At first we thought we'd rent a house in the suburbs.
Now we've decided to buy one, since we've said that we'll stay for at least two years.

Since the children and I are going to California tomorrow, I won't be able to look for a house.
Dave'll do it.
He'll be working hard while we're enjoying ourselves in California.

It isn't easy to buy a house.
There are certain things which are very important to us.

Lesson 29

For example, Dave's been talking about a large yard with a garden, where he can grow flowers. Since there are so many things to think about, I've been making a list. I do hope he'll find a house we'll like.

PART 2

Where to live

Mrs. Kent It's a good thing that Skip has taken the kids out today.

Mr. Kent Yes, they'll enjoy themselves at the beach and it'll give us a chance to discuss houses. How long will they be away?

Mrs. Kent Well, they left at eight this morning (8:00 a.m.) and they'll be back at about nine tonight (9:00 p.m.).

That's thirteen hours.

Mr. Kent Since you'll be leaving tomorrow, we'll have to have a short discussion with them when they return.

We'll tell them what we've decided and find out what they think.

- Mrs. Kent* What have we decided?
- Mr. Kent* First, we do not want a modern house.
- Mrs. Kent* No, that's second.
First, we do want to live in the suburbs.
- Mr. Kent* Oh, yes. That's right . . . probably in Connecticut, where the Wieses live.
- Mrs. Kent* Danny won't argue about that, since he could visit Fred if we lived there.
- Mr. Kent* Yes, but I'd rather not live in Fairfield.
I'd rather live a little closer to the city.
- Mrs. Kent* What else should I put on the list?
- Mr. Kent* I don't know.
I'll think about it while I'm shaving.

Lists

- Mr. Kent* What have you been doing, Kathy?
- Mrs. Kent* While you've been shaving, I've been adding to our list. I've begun another list, too.
- Mr. Kent* What for?
- Mrs. Kent* For new things inside the house.
- Mr. Kent* What have you been listing?
- Mrs. Kent* "Extra bedroom for guests."
- Mr. Kent* Good idea. What else?

Lesson 29

Mrs. Kent "Fireplace in the living room."

Mr. Kent Yes. I do love the smell of wood burning.
Since we'll be looking for an old house, it's likely that we'll be able to find one with a fireplace.

They're very common in old houses.

Mrs. Kent I also wrote "playroom" on the list.

Mr. Kent Danny would like a place where he could amuse himself and entertain his friends.

Mrs. Kent That's what I thought.

Danny's opinion

a farm

Danny I heard my name.

Mr. Kent Hi, Danny.

We've been thinking about you.

Danny Oh, are you going to buy a farm?

Mrs. Kent How silly you are, Danny.

We're not rich, you know.

Danny But we're not poor, either.

Mr. Kent I'd like a farm, too, Danny, but since I have to work in New York City, I can't take care of a farm.

Danny But I like animals.

Mr. Kent You can have a dog or a cat.

- Danny* Yes, I do like dogs.
What else have you been talking about?
- Mr. Kent* We've been trying to decide where to live and what kind of house to buy.
Do you have any ideas?
- Danny* Well, there's no particular kind of house I like.
Let's look in the newspaper, where there'll be some ads.

Real estate

- Mrs. Kent* Where's Laurie?
- Danny* In her room.
- Mrs. Kent* What's she been doing?
- Danny* She's been looking at herself in the mirror.
- Mrs. Kent* She got a sunburn today.
Look at yourself, Danny.
You've got a sunburn, too.
- Danny* I know.
Here's the real estate section.
- Mrs. Kent* If we were sure that we'd stay here, we could have a house built.
- Mr. Kent* But, Kathy, we want an old house.
We can't have an old house built.
- Mrs. Kent* You're right.
How stupid I am!
- Danny* There are no good ones in the newspaper.
- Mrs. Kent* None?
- Danny* No, there aren't any here.
- Mr. Kent* We'll check tomorrow.
I'll find a few and compare them.
While you're enjoying yourselves in California,
I'll be running around looking at houses.
- Danny* Don't run too fast, Dad.
- Mr. Kent* Very funny!

PART 3

Bored

Judy I don't know what to do or where to go.

Bob Take yourself to the movies.

Judy I have no money.

Bob Visit a friend.

Judy I don't know who to visit.

I don't have any friends.

Bob Take the dog for a walk.

Judy No, I'd rather do nothing.

Late again

Joe How long has Betsey been getting ready?

Dave For at least an hour.

And it's likely that she'll need another hour.

Joe Why?

Dave She hasn't washed or dressed yet.

Joe It's a good thing she doesn't have to shave, too.

LESSON THIRTY (30)
THIRTIETH (30TH) LESSON

Leaving the hotel

PART 1

Mr. Kent Kathy and the kids are going to fly to California this afternoon.

Before I accepted the job, we had planned to go by bus.

It's a long way from here to California, but we thought we'd enjoy the trip.

We thought we'd stop in Chicago where we'd visit my youngest brother.

However, now all of our plans have been changed. Since I have no time to waste, the family's going to California without me.

I'll stay here alone and look for a house.

I'd rather not do it alone, but I have no choice: I have to do it myself.

Mike Wiese found their house himself, so I guess it can be done.

I'll stay in New York City from Monday through Friday and then go to the Wieses for the weekends. Either Mike will drive me around to look at houses or he'll lend me his car and I'll drive myself.

PART 2

Weather

Mr. Kent The weather report hasn't been given yet, has it?

Mrs. Kent I don't think so.

I haven't heard it yet.

Mr. Kent Turn up the radio, please.

There'll probably be a report in a few minutes.
It's almost noon.

Mrs. Kent My hands are full: I can't turn it up.

Mr. Kent O.K. I'll do it myself.

This sounds like the end of the news.

the weather report

Reporter You've been listening to the news on WRNS and now we have a special bulletin for motorists. In Westchester, where strong winds have caused trees to fall onto the road, driving is very dangerous. According to the latest report, there have been several serious accidents: a man died when a tree fell and crushed his car. This happened between the bridge and the church on River Street in Yonkers. If you are driving, avoid this area since the traffic is very heavy.

And now the weather forecast —

The rain will continue until late tonight.

The temperature in Central Park is seventy-two degrees (72°).

Tomorrow will be sunny and warmer.

No delays

Mrs. Kent This is terrible, Dave.

Do you think it's safe to fly?

Mr. Kent If the planes are flying, I'm sure it's safe.

They never fly when they know there's danger.

Mrs. Kent Maybe we should call the airport.

Mr. Kent Laurie's already done that.

Mrs. Kent Did she think of that herself or did you suggest it?

Mr. Kent She did it herself.

Mrs. Kent What was she told?

Mr. Kent There have been no cancellations and no delays yet.

Mrs. Kent Yet? What does that mean?

Mr. Kent The planes have been taking off on time but if the bad weather continues, some delays are expected.

Mrs. Kent I do hope our flight won't be delayed.

Broken records

Mrs. Kent Has everything been packed?

Mr. Kent Yes, I think so.

The kids have taken their suitcases downstairs.

Mrs. Kent Did they do it themselves?

Mr. Kent Danny carried his down himself.

Laurie asked the bellboy to carry hers down because she couldn't lift it herself.

Mrs. Kent How did Danny pack his records?

Mr. Kent Gee, I don't know.

Here he is. You can ask him yourself.

Mrs. Kent How did you pack your records, Danny?

Danny I didn't have to pack them.

Mrs. Kent Why?

Danny I broke them.

Mrs. Kent How did you do that?

Danny Oh, it was easy

I brought them into my room this morning.

I put them in the center of my bed where I could see them.

Then I went downstairs and when I came back I sat on them.

A telegram

Mr. Kent Is everyone ready?
Skip's waiting downstairs.
He's parked his car outside the hotel where he's not allowed to park, so we should hurry.

Laurie I hate leaving this place.
I've really felt at home here.

Mrs. Kent Dave, have you paid for the rooms?

Mr. Kent Yes, I paid a little while ago.
It cost more than I thought it would.
While I was paying, this telegram was delivered.

Mrs. Kent Telegram? From whom?

Mr. Kent From your sister.
Here . . . you can read it yourself.

Mrs. Kent "RECEIVED NOTE WILL MEET AT AIRPORT JOANNA."

Laurie What was the second word, Mom?

Mrs. Kent The second word's "NOTE".

Mr. Kent Did you notice the date on it?

Mrs. Kent Yes, it was sent on Friday.
How peculiar! It should have arrived yesterday.

Mr. Kent Yes, it was sent to the wrong hotel.

Mrs. Kent Oh, well.
Let's go!

PART 3

Fire

Mother Have you been crying, Tom?

Tom Yes, Mother.

Mother Have you hurt yourself?

Tom Not really. I've burned myself.

Mother Tom, you've been playing with matches again. I've been telling you for years, "Do not play with fire".

Tom Oh, Mother!

A bar

Ruth I do want a drink. It's so hot.

Jim Since you're so thirsty, let's go to a bar.

Ruth Oh, yes. I do like your American beer.

Jim Shall we go to the "Sunset Lounge"?

Ruth I'd rather go to one where we can sit on the porch.

American English Sounds

1. /t/	2. /d/
3. /k/	4. /g/
5. /p/	6. /b/
7. /m/	8. /n/
9. /ŋ/	10. /l/
11. /r/	12. /w/
13. /j/	14. /h/
15. /θ/	16. /ð/
17. /f/	18. /v/
19. /s/	20. /z/
21. /ʃ/	22. /ʒ/
23. /tʃ/	24. /dʒ/
25. /ɪ/	26. /e/
27. /æ/	28. /ʌ/
29. /ʊ/	30. /ə/
31. /ɑ/	32. /ɔ/
33. /o/	34. /u/
35. /i/	36. /y/
37. /eɪ/	38. /oʊ/
39. /aɪ/	40. /ɔɪ/
41. /aʊ/	42. /ɪə/
43. /eə/	44. /ʊə/
45. /ɪə/	46. /ʊə/
47. /ɪə/	48. /ʊə/
49. /ɪə/	50. /ʊə/

American English Sounds

Vowels and diphthongs

- | | | | |
|----|-------|----|-------|
| 1 | meet | 11 | a cup |
| 2 | miss | 12 | steak |
| 3 | bed | 13 | no |
| 4 | black | 14 | time |
| 5 | far | 15 | how |
| 6 | for | 16 | boy |
| 7 | good | 17 | here |
| 8 | food | 18 | there |
| 9 | girl | 19 | new |
| 10 | cup | | |

Consonants

- | | | | |
|----|-------|----|------------|
| 1 | put | 13 | she |
| 2 | book | 14 | television |
| 3 | time | 15 | chicken |
| 4 | day | 16 | juice |
| 5 | key | 17 | meet |
| 6 | good | 18 | now |
| 7 | for | 19 | thing |
| 8 | very | 20 | like |
| 9 | thing | 21 | well |
| 10 | there | 22 | here |
| 11 | some | 23 | yes |
| 12 | zoo | 24 | right |

American English sounds in pairs

Vowels and diphthongs

1 and 2	feet fit
2 and 3	lift left
3 and 4	bed bad
4 and 5	pack park
5 and 6	farm form
6 and 13	caught coat
12 and 14	late light
4 and 10	match much
7 and 6	took talk
3 and 12	let late
17 and 18	here hair
13 and 15	know now
9 and 13	birth both
10 and 13	must most
7 and 2	foot fit
5 and 16	bar boy
8 and 13	shoe show

The alphabet

A B C D E F G H I J
a b c d e f g h i j
K L M N O P Q R S T
k l m n o p q r s t
U V W X Y Z
u v w x y z

Consonants

8 and 7	view few
1 and 2	pack back
20 and 24	long wrong
21 and 24	west rest
11 and 12	Sue zoo
13 and 11	show so
13 and 15	shoes choose
3 and 4	tie die
3 and 10	ten then
5 and 6	could good

Acknowledgements

The photographs are reproduced by the kind permission of the following: United States Information Service (pp. 1, 27, 35, 80, 103, 117, 142, 157, 171, 193); J. Allan Cash, F.I.I.P., F.R.P.S. (p. 19); Syndication International (p. 179).

The line drawings are by Bert Dodson